Sir Geoffrey Owen Senior Fellow London School of Economics and former editor of the Financial Times Changing Korea Theresa Youn-ja Shim, Min-Sun Kim, Judith N. Martin, 2008 In the last fifty years Korea has transformed itself from an agrarian Confucian based culture into a global and technological powerhouse and one of the most important political and economic forces in the world. In one generation they moved from the fields to Silicon Valley. They accomplished this through three totally unexpected miracles economic development democratization and the arrival of their culture to global attention. Who are the Koreans? What are they like? The New Koreans examines how they have been perceived by outsiders the features that color their national character and how their emergence from backwardness poverty and brutality happened.
