Diana Lively Is Falling Down:

Diana Lively is Falling Down Sheila Curran, 2005-07-05 Like the legendary London Bridge Diana Lively has been transplanted from England to the Arizona desert Also she seems to be falling down Trained as an architect top in her class she makes dollhouses Widowed young and beautiful she distrusted people who were kind to her and married Ted the one man who wasn't Maybe it's a good thing that Diana Lively's life is suddenly out of her control Billionaire American Wally The Ammo King Gold also lost a spouse young and in memory of his beloved Anglophile wife Wally wants to fund Arthurian Studies at Oxford and also to bring back to Arizona an expert consultant for his King Arthur Theme Park Ted Lively Arthurian scholar fond of sherry and pretty undergraduates when he can take time off from belittling his wife most definitely does not want to go and live among the barbarians of Arizona But Oxford eager to please Wally gives him no choice So the Livelys are off to Phoenix where Diana pictures deadly scorpions tarantulas and snakes and Ted bewails the loss of his children's perfect accents And yet in this most unlikely place in the most surprising ways Diana is about to discover that the happiness she thought was lost forever can shower down on her again can flood her dry life like a lake in the desert and make it bloom

Diana Lively Is Falling Down Sheila Curran, 2005 Trained as an architect in England Diana Lively accompanies her second husband Ted on a trip to Arizona to assist in an American billionaire's project to construct a King Arthur Theme Park in the middle of the local desert and finds her life transformed forever A first novel Original Everyone She Loved Sheila Curran, 2009-06-16 A wise and triumphant novel about four women who've come of age together only to discover that when it comes to the essentials life's little instruction book will always need revising Penelope Cameron loving mother devoted wife and generous philanthropist has convinced her husband and four closest friends to sign an outlandish pact If Penelope should die before her two daughters are eighteen her husband will not remarry without the permission of Penelope's sister and three college roommates For years this contract gathers dust until the unthinkable happens Suddenly everyone she loved must find their way in a world without Penelope For Lucy Vargas Penelope's best friend and a second mother to her daughters nothing seems more natural than to welcome them into a home that had once belonged to their family a lovely sprawling bed and breakfast on the beach This bequest was only one of the many ways in which Penelope had supported Lucy's career as a painter declaring her talent too important to squander But now in the wake of a disaster that only lovable worrisome Penelope could have predicted Lucy has put her work on hold as she and Penelope's husband Joey blindly grasp at anything that will keep the girls from sinking under the weight of their grief With the help of family and friends the children slowly build new lives But just when things start to come together the fragile serenity they have gained is suddenly threatened from within and the unbreakable bonds they share seem likely to dissolve after all In this entertaining and uplifting novel Sheila Curran explores the faith one woman placed in her dearest friends the care she took to protect her family and the many ways in which romantic entanglements will confound and confuse even the most determined of planners
