Meditations on the Holy Scriptures of Orthodoxy John P. Nasou,2012-10 Following his retirement after twenty five years of medical practice he proceeded to writing the Sunday bulletins of the cathedral and essays on a variety of topics of interest to his fellow Orthodox parishioners He was urged by the protopresbyter Steven Zorzos the current dean of the cathedral to publish his writings as books This is the first in which he provides examples of how he has experienced and interpreted his reading of the Holy Scriptures He provides examples of what is available within them that are frequently overlooked by many readers Furthermore the English translations of the Bible are filled with many errors which can only be clarified by finding the most appropriate English words among the many available for translating the true meaning of some Greeks words in the original New Testament and the Septuagint Many examples of this phenomenon are provided in this volume      The Presbyterian ,1898      Catalogue d'un choix de Livres d'ethnographie et de Linguistique Livres Orientaux ... provenant de la Bibliotheque de feu C. de Labarthe, etc Charles de Labarthe,1872      Human Trafficking, the Bible, and the Church Marion L. S. Carson,2016-11-04 Human trafficking causes untold suffering to millions throughout the world From a Christian perspective it should go without saying that we ought to work towards the eradication of this evil The Bible however which all Christian traditions recognize as normative for faith and practice reflects an era in which slavery was regarded as the norm This raises a question can it have anything to say to the church about human trafficking or should it be discarded as irrelevant and anachronistic Drawing on history and literature to help us bridge the hermeneutical gap between the texts and our own age this study presents an examination of key biblical material on slavery and prostitution It suggests that the Bible does have much to say that can inform Christian responses to modern day slavery in all its forms including the sex industry into which so many victims of trafficking are sold      The London Chronicle ,1759
