When Tineka Smith and Alex Court first fell in love, neither were prepared for the disconnect between them when it came to race. As a Black American woman, Tineka struggled with the oppression and microaggressions she faced on a daily basis, and it took Alex, a White British man, a lot of soul searching to see that his life-long expectations were skewed by his privilege. In a series of alternating chapters, Tineka and Alex share their deepest feelings and the lessons they've learned about race and privilege from their childhoods to their education and workplace experiences to thoughts about their future children. While Tineka finds herself in the role of racial equality advocate in her own relationship, Alex learns what it means to be a true ally as a person and a husband.
