Dialogical Meetings in Social Networks Tom Erik Arnkil, 2018-05-08 This book describes and analyses two dialogic network practices Open Dialogues developed for use in psychiatric crisis situations and Anticipation Dialogues used in less acute situations such as multi agency muddles where the helper systems are stuck The book is both theoretical and detailed enough for practitioners who wish to apply the approaches to their work It is meant for professionals in the fields of psycho social work including therapists to day care personnel social workers to school teachers researchers and academics As the book touches upon dialogues with and within private networks the book reaches out to clients too Handbook of Narrative Psychotherapy for Children, Adults, and Families Jan Olthof, 2018-05-08 The Handbook Narrative Psychotherapy for Children Adults and Families combines philosophical scientific and theoretical insights in the field of narrative psychotherapy and links them to sources of inspiration such as poetry film literature and art under the common denominator narrative thinking Sections on theoretical issues alternate with a large number of case histories drawn from different therapeutic contexts The reader can browse at will through the many examples of therapeutic sessions in some cases including literal transcriptions in which narrativity in all its forms is the point of departure What language does the body speak What messages do seemingly random slips of the tongue convey How can a painting help a client to find words for his or her story The discussion of the logic of abduction demonstrates the importance of metaphor and special attention is given to the processes of creating a therapeutic context and defining a therapeutic framework Positions and Polarities in Contemporary Systemic Practice Sara Barratt, Charlotte Burck, Ellie Kavner, 2018-03-08 This book provides a rich collection of the work that has been informed by the ideas of the eminent family therapist and clinical psychologist Dr David Campbell who died in August 2009 Contributors are drawn from different fields and describe models they have developed for organizational consultation training therapy and research The book includes a range of important topics key ideas which thread through contemporary theoretical frameworks a research study into young people s experience of parental mental illness and the application of Dr Campbell s use of semantic polarity theory in supervision research and clinical practice The innovative consultancy model developed by David Campbell with Marianne Groenbaek is elaborated here Personal accounts of work in different contexts include a priest consulting within his community the use of self in training systemic psychotherapists the experience of consultation in academic settings and a narrative of a training course for psychiatrists Interspersed with these chapters are David Campbell s own reflections concerning the development of his ideas and practice over time DIALOGICAL MEETINGS IN SOCIAL NETWORKS TOM. ERIK ARNKIL, 2019-06-14 Creative Positions in Adult Mental Health Sue McNab, Karen Partridge, 2018-05-01 This book presents cutting edge developments in Adult Mental Health through the presentation of creative and innovative applications of systemic theory to practice The first section deconstructs the medical model with some of the current beliefs and practices shaping services whilst placing adult mental health in a wider social and political context The second half of the book showcases good practice from the field At either end of the volume bookends invite current clients and staff to write about their experiences with the aim of bringing a powerful personal context into the work We intend to create a shift from third person objectivity to a first person experience as a political act which flows through the book
