Diana Vreeland Bazaar Years John Esten, 2001 Why Don't You tie black tulle bows on your wrists have a yellow satin bed entirely quilted in butterflies remember how delicious champagne cocktails are after tennis or golf Indifferent champagne can be used for these For more than half a century Diana Vreeland doyenne of American fashion beguiled awed astonished and was adored by almost anyone who created or wore clothes Irresistible and flamboyant socialite Mrs T Reed Vreeland began her now legendary twenty five year tenure at Harper's Bazaar writing a column of audacious advice extravagant ideas that helped redefine American women and twentieth century fashion Her commentary created a fashion frenzy when it began appearing in Harper's Bazaar in 1936 Her ideas were simultaneously stylish and outrageous and have as much appeal today as they did decades ago Here for the first time John Esten has compiled one hundred of Mrs Vreeland's kaleidoscopic Why Don't You suggestions and paired them with the breathtaking works of such renowned photographers and artists as Munkacsi Dahl Wolfe Hoyningen Huene and Berard which further capture the dazzling legacy of whimsy elegance and style of Mrs Vreeland's Bazaar years

Diana Vreeland: The Modern Woman Alexander Vreeland, 2015-10-20 The first Vreeland book to focus on her three decades at Harper's Bazaar where the legendary editor honed her singular take on fashion In 1936 Harper's Bazaar editor in chief Carmel Snow made a decision that changed fashion forever when she invited a stylish London transplant named Diana Vreeland to join her magazine Vreeland created Why Don't You an illustrated column of irreverent advice for chic living Soon she was named the magazine's fashion editor a position that Richard Avedon later famously credited Vreeland with inventing The troika of Snow legendary art director Alexey Brodovitch and Vreeland formed a creative collaboration that continued Harper's Bazaar's dominance as America's leading fashion magazine As World War II changed women's role in society Vreeland's love for fashion and endless imagination provided exciting modern imagery for this new paradigm This book covers Vreeland's three decade tenure at Bazaar revealing how Vreeland reshaped the role of the fashion editor by introducing styling creative direction and visual storytelling Her innovative perspective and creative working relationships with photographers such as Richard Avedon Cecil Beaton Louise Dahl Wolfe Lillian Bassman and Hoyningen Huene brought the American woman into a modern world Through more than 300 images from the magazine this book shows how Vreeland's work not only influenced her readership but also forged the path for modern fashion storytelling that endures today

Evans, Alessandra Vaccari, 2020-07-09 Few phenomena embody the notion of time as well as fashion Fast moving and rooted in the now it s constantly creating its own past through the process of rapid style change Uniquely poised between the past and the future fashion s relationship with time is unorthodox Rather than considering time in the conventional sense this anthology explores three alternative ways to think about fashion and time the first identifies the seasonal nature of fashion as an industry and shows how this has impacted on workers and wearers alike The second looks at fashion design as a ceaseless process of adaptation reconstruction and recombination of motifs in which nostalgia and revivals play their part The third construes fashion s imaginary with its capacity for fantasy and myth making as a form of alternate history that asks what if Within this framework key classic texts are juxtaposed with lesser known ones in an interdisciplinary approach that includes philosophy history literature media and fashion design ranging from the 18th century to the present It will be of interest to anyone wishing to understand one of the most complex yet inescapable aspects of fashion its relationship to time and will be a critical resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students in the humanities and all those interested in fashion in all its creative commercial and cultural aspects
