Literary Index, 1896 The Forum, 1927 Understanding Genre and Medieval Romance K.S. Whetter, 2017-05-15

Unique in combining a comprehensive and comparative study of genre with a study of romance this book constitutes a significant contribution to ongoing critical debates over the definition of romance and the genre and artistry of Malory's Morte Darthur K S Whetter offers an original approach to these issues by prefacing a comprehensive study of romance with a wide ranging and historically diverse study of genre and genre theory In doing so Whetter addresses the questions of why and how romance might usefully be defined and how such an awareness of genre and the expectations that come with such awareness impact upon both our understanding of the texts themselves and of how they may have been received by their contemporary medieval audiences As an integral part the study Whetter offers a detailed examination of Sir Thomas Malory's Le Morte Darthur a text usually considered a straightforward romance but which Whetter argues should be re classified and reconsidered as a generic mixture best termed tragic romance This new classification is important in helping to explain a number of so called inconsistencies or puzzles in Malory's text and further elucidates Malory's artistry Whetter offers a powerful meditation upon genre romance and the Morte which will be of interest to faculty graduate students and undergraduates alike

The Real Thing Georg M. Gugelberger, 1996 Presented as the authentic testimony of the disenfranchised the colonized and the oppressed testimonio has in the last two decades emerged as one of the most significant genres of Latin America's post boom literature In the political battles that have taken place around the formation of the canon the testimonio holds a special place no other single genre of literature has taken up such a large part of current debate Initially hailed in the 1970s as a genuine form of resistance literature testimonio has since undergone a significant change in its critical reception The essays in The Real Thing analyze the testimonio its history and its place in contemporary consciousness Although the literature of testimony arose on the margins of institutional power and its ends were in large part political change the canonization of testimonio by the academic Left has moved it from margin to center ironically bringing about the institutionalization of its transgressive and counter hegemonic qualities Discussing Latin American works ranging from Salvadorian writer Roque Dalton s Miguel Marmol to Rigoberta Menchu a work that earned its author a Nobel Prize this collection explores how critical writing about testimonio has turned into discourse about the institution of academia the canon postmodernism and postcolonialism and the status of Latin American studies generally Contributors John Beverley Santiago Col s Georg M Gugelberger Barbara Harlow Fredric Jameson Alberto Moreiras Margaret Randall Javier Sanjines Elzbieta Sklodowska Doris Sommer Gareth Williams George Y dice Marc Zimmerman Subject Guide to Books in Print
