Symbols in Arts, Religion and Culture Farrin Chwalkowski, 2016-12-14 We are a product of nature Every single cell of our body is made of and depends on nature Our inner soul is heavily influenced by nature We feel sad if the sun is not shining for a few days and feel pleasure when drawn to the wonder of flowers and uplifted by the song of birds We came from nature we are part of nature In short we are nature Nature has been an intimate part of the human experience from the earliest times Different religions and cultures from all corners of the world have honoured and worshipped nature in art ritual and literature in their own unique ways This book shows how we learn about our own human nature our own sense of identity and how we fit into the larger scheme of life and spirit when we come to better understand how our human ancestors through art symbol and myth expressed their relationship with the natural world

Symbolism, Its Origins and Its Consequences Rosina Neginsky, 2010-08-11 The notion of the symbol is at the root of the Symbolist movement but this symbol is different from the way it was used and understood in the Middle Ages and Renaissance In the Symbolist movement a symbol is not an allegory The Belgian writer Maurice Maeterlinck defined its essence in an article that appeared on April 24 1887 in L Art moderne He wrote that the notion of a symbol in the Symbolist movement is the opposite of the notion of the symbol in classical usage instead of going from the abstract to the concrete Venus incarnated in the statue represents love it goes from the concrete to the abstract from what is seen heard felt tasted and sensed to the evocation of the idea This volume attempts to give a glimpse into the power of the Symbolist movement and the nature of its fundamental and interdisciplinary role in the evolution of art and literature of the twentieth century It records the studies of a group of scholars who met and discussed these topics together for the first time in 2009 While illuminating the specificity of Symbolism in art architecture and literature in different European countries these articles also demonstrate the crucial role of French Symbolism in the development of the international Symbolist movement The authors hope that an expanding group a society of Art Literature and Music in Symbolism and Decadence ALMSD born out of the first meeting will continue to further this discussion at future conferences and in the printed conference proceedings

Initiation of the Soul Pamela S. Alexander PhD, 2019-12-11 We are in the midst of an epic evolution in consciousness that involves a radical shift in orientation from the ego to the heart and soul This transformative process requires a breaking down of the old form which we are witnessing personally and collectively to create the space for something new to emerge As we live from the soul and express our deepest truths we actively participate in this change Life experiences may seem as though they're random but in fact they have an intention deeper meaning and purpose which is to facilitate this transformation within us Everything is occurring to free us from our old beliefs outdated ways of living and any limiting ideas we have about life and ourselves In INITIATION OF THE SOUL Dr Pamela Alexander explores the soul's journey through myth and classic fairy tales In the initiatory mythic story of Psyche and Amor the goddess of love orchestrates events in order to awaken the soul from its slumber The heroine faces challenging tasks that draw the deeper truth of the soul's inherent wholeness freedom and power out of the unconscious and into an embodied awareness Dr Alexander proceeds from there to explore fairy tales that speak to the issues that arise during the soul's emergence These stories symbolically instruct us as to how to resolve our fears and open to love As inner restrictions are resolved we can embody expanded versions of ourselves and become more stable in a chaotic and uncertain world The stories guide us to free the soul from an egoic identification which is buffeted by the winds of change and the opinions of others to the unshakeable ground of being within Then we are empowered to live in freedom and wholeness as we participate in the creation of a new world
