Case Closed Nine Mysteries Unlocked By Modern Science:

Case Closed? Susan Hughes, 2013-09-01 Egypt's first female pharaoh disappears around 1457 BCE was she murdered Find out how DNA closes the case The ancient Arabian Peninsula city of Ubar vanishes seemingly without trace Find out how old maps and modern space shuttles help solve the mystery Sir John Franklin's 1845 expedition to find the Northwest Passage is never heard from again Find out how spectroscopy points to some probable explanations Case Closed examines these and six other mysteries from ancient and modern times Accompanied by photos maps diagrams and illustrations this book reveals how modern science sheds new light on people vessels and entire civilizations throughout history that simply vanished In some cases the mystery has been solved In other cases readers can examine the latest evidence and decide for themselves

The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin, 2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents grandparents and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines newspapers reference books schools libraries parenting organizations and professional groups from across the country The Mother of All Booklists is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies the ultimate one stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics Organized into five age group lists each with one hundred books preschoolers ages 3 5 early readers ages 5 9 middle readers ages 9 13 young adults ages 13 17 and adults ages 18 The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States including a few from Canada and Great Britain Each of the 500 books is annotated describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important Each includes a picture of the book cover

Booktalking Nonfiction Jennifer Bromann-Bender, 2013-12-20 Booktalking Nonfiction 200 Sure Fire Winners for Middle and High School Readers will provide an introduction to selecting and writing booktalks for nonfiction books with a focus on unique informational texts and biographies and autobiographies A booktalk is a summary of a book presented in a way that would interest someone in reading the book described Why non fiction Because the Common Core Standards Initiative which most states have adopted requires that 70% of the materials students read be from the category of informational texts it is especially important to focus on nonfiction when sharing books with students Here's everything you need to do just that Chapters cover selecting writing preparing and presenting booktalks special tips for high interest low level books and using non fiction in the library and the classroom Two hundred ready to present booktalks arranged by genre are also included Genres include animals famous people sports crime and serial killers movies and television religion war history and the supernatural

Literary Conversations in the Classroom Diane Barone, Rebecca Barone, 2017 Combining research with real life classroom examples this book demonstrates how high level conversations centered on fiction and nonfiction can promote student understanding and help them meet and exceed a spectrum of standards The authors demonstrate how to use literary conversations in small heterogeneous groups to address multiple expectations within classrooms such as close reading vocabulary background knowledge literal and inferential comprehension and responses to multimodal interpretation nonfiction text features and graphic organizers The text includes the theoretical why and the very practical how to to help teachers grades 3 8 successfully implement serious sustained student group conversations about their reading The recommendations for heterogeneous groups rather than groups based on book selection or reading ability will support all students struggling readers and those reading at or above grade level This practical resource shows teachers how to Group students heterogeneously from inexperienced participants to sophisticated readers Support each student as he or she reads a nonfiction or fiction book Engage students in critical conversations centered on their reading Be mindful of the roles for each student and how these change based on genre Assess student participation and literacy outcomes Barone and Barone show us how to guide students literacy development through interactions They articulate the support teachers and students need to engage in deep conversations about narrative and informational texts such that students uncover their thinking and explore the thinking of their peers relative to complex texts The ideas contained within this volume have the potential to unleash student learning in powerful ways Douglas Fisher San Diego State University Barone and Barone have created a valuable resource perfect for meeting the expectations of the Common Core and fostering students comprehension as well as their speaking and listening skills Maureen McLaughlin Professor of Reading East Stroudsburg University of PA 2013 2014 President of the International Literacy Association
