Concept Time Early Twentieth Century Philosophy:

The Concept of Time in Early Twentieth-Century Philosophy Flavia Santoianni, 2015-11-26 This book presents a collection of authoritative contributions on the concept of time in early twentieth century philosophy. It is structured in the form of a thematic atlas; each section is accompanied by relevant elementary logic maps that reproduce in a spatial form the directionalities, arguments, and/or discourses reported on in the text. The book is divided into three main sections: the first of which covers phenomenology and the perception of time by analyzing the works of Bergson, Husserl, Sartre, Merleau-Ponty, Deleuze, Guattari, and Derrida. The second section focuses on the language and conceptualization of time, examining the works of Cassirer, Wittgenstein, Heidegger, Lacan, Ricoeur, and Foucault, while the last section addresses the science and logic of time as they appear in the works of Guillaume, Einstein, Reichenbach, Prigogine, and Barbour. The purpose of the book is threefold: to provide readers with a comprehensive overview of the concept of time in early twentieth century philosophy; to show how conceptual reasoning can be supported by accompanying linguistic and spatial representations; and to stimulate novel research in the humanistic field concerning the complex role of graphic representations in the comprehension of concepts.

Grammar in Early Twentieth-Century Philosophy Richard Gaskin, 2013-04-15 This book is a systematic and historical exploration of the philosophical significance of grammar. In the first half of the twentieth century and in particular in the writings of Frege, Husserl, Russell, Carnap, and Wittgenstein, there was sustained philosophical reflection on the nature of grammar and on the relevance of grammar to metaphysics, logic, and science.

Teaching and Mobile Learning Flavia Santoianni, Corrado Petrucco, Alessandro Ciasullo, Daniele Agostini, 2021-12-30 Teaching and Mobile Learning: Interactive Educational Design is a groundbreaking book which shows how to design innovative educational mobile learning environments for instructional designers, curriculum developers, and learning professionals. The book aims to solicit teachers, educators, and practitioners to adapt their teaching with the help of educational digital models related to mobile technologies. Mobile learning is a revolution in concepts like space, sound, production, and learning, to get more and more customized, always connected, and ever-changing educational mobile learning environments. Researchers and academicians can be trained in cognition processes in learning management of mixed reality and virtual bodies. Mixed reality mobile technologies are becoming tools for education and training in mixed reality mobile learning. Readers of this book will understand how user and device innovative interactions are borderline with attention deficit disorder, digital amnesia, and information overload. The book develops educational knowledge on how to manage mobile technology and specific learning disorders to monitor the use of smartphones and technology tools and to empower their role in learning enhancement processes.

Columbia Companion to Twentieth-Century Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo American analytic and European continental traditions Organized thematically the volume thoroughly discusses the major movements and fields of each tradition and features the contributions of highly distinguished specialists in their fields This book is divided into three sections The first is devoted to highlighting the multidimensional work of philosophers identified with the analytic tradition with Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant's legacy The second section presents the thought of those who identified themselves with the continental tradition featuring Jean Grondin on hermeneutics Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology Charles Scott on postmodernism and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science This volume also covers logical positivism naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by the editor not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is an invaluable overview of the ideas that have shaped a monumentally important century in the history of philosophy offering an unusually panoramic perspective that allows readers to form their own interpretations of original materials

Time, History and Cultural Spaces Jayita Sengupta, 2022-10-07 This book brings together critical essays on time history and narrativity and the explorations of these concepts in philosophy music art and literature The volume provides a comprehensive introduction to narrative theories as well as philosophical discourses on time memory and the self Drawing insights from western and eastern philosophy it discusses themes such as subjectivity and identity in historical narratives theorization of time in cinema and other arts and the relationship between the understandings of existence consciousness and concepts such as Kala Aion and yugas The book also looks at the narrativization of history across cultures by exploring modern fiction from China and India murals of martyrs in Northern Ireland music and films set against the canvas of the Second World War and the Holocaust as well as diasporic cultural histories This book will be an interesting read for scholars and researchers of comparative literature history philosophy of history cultural studies and post colonial studies

century clocks acquired minute hands A century later second hands appeared But it wasn't until the 1850s that instruments could recognize a tenth of a second and once they did the impact on modern science and society was profound Revealing the history behind this infinitesimal interval A Tenth of a Second sheds new light on modernity and illuminates the work of important thinkers of the last two centuries Tracing debates about the nature of time causality and free will as well as the introduction of modern technologies telegraphy photography cinematography Jimena Canales locates the reverberations of this perceptual moment throughout culture Once scientists associated the tenth of a second with the speed of thought they developed reaction time experiments with lasting implications for experimental psychology physiology and optics Astronomers and physicists struggled to control the profound consequences of results that were a tenth of a second off And references to the interval were part of a general inquiry into time consciousness and sensory experience that involved rethinking the contributions of Descartes and Kant Considering its impact on much longer time periods and featuring appearances by Henri Bergson Walter Benjamin and Albert Einstein among others A Tenth of a Second is ultimately an important contribution to history and a novel perspective on modernity

The Concept of Person in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Georges Tamer, 2023-11-06 The sixth volume of the series Key Concepts of Interreligious Discourses investigates the roots of the concept of person in Judaism Christianity and Islam and its relevance for the present time The concept of person lies at the core of central ideas in the modern world such as the value and development of personal identity the sanctity of human person and the human rights based on that In societies that are shaped by a long Christian tradition these ideas are associated often with the belief in the creation of man in the image of God But although Judaism shares with Christianity the same Biblical texts about the creation of man and also the Qur'an knows Adam as the first human being created by God and his representative on earth the focus on the concept of person is in each one of these religions a different one So the crucial question is how did the concept of person evolve in Judaism Christianity and Islam out of the concept of human being What are the special features of personhood in each one of these traditions The volume presents the concept of person in its different aspects as anchored in Judaism Christianity and Islam It unfolds commonalities and differences between the three monotheistic religions as well as the manifold discourses about the meaning of person within these three religions

Silwood Circle, The: A History Of Ecology And The Making Of Scientific Careers In Late Twentieth-century Britain Hannah Gay, 2013-04-12 This is an original and wide ranging account of the careers of a close knit group of highly influential ecologists working in Britain from the late 1960s onwards The book can also be read as a history of some recent developments in ecology One of the group Robert May is a past president of the Royal Society and the author of what many see as the most important treatise in theoretical ecology of the later twentieth century That the group flourished was due not only to May s intellectual leadership but also to the guiding hand of T R E Southwood Southwood ended his career as Linacre Professor of Zoology at the University of Oxford where he also served a term as Vice Chancellor Earlier as a professor and director of the Silwood Park campus of Imperial College London he brought the group together Since it began to coalesce at Silwood it has been named here the Silwood Circle Southwood promoted the interests of its members with the larger aim of raising the profile of ecological and environmental science in Britain Given public anxiety over the environment and the loss of ecosystems his actions were well timed Ecology which had been on the scientific margins in the first half of the twentieth century came to be viewed as a science central to modern existence The book illustrates its importance to many areas Members of the Silwood Circle have acted as government advisors in the areas of conservation and biodiversity resource management pest control food policy genetically modified crops sustainable agriculture international development defence against biological weapons and epidemiology and infectious disease control In recounting the science they carried out and how they made their careers the book reflects also on the role of the group and the nature of scientific success

Concept Time Early Twentieth Century Philosophy: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Concept Time Early Twentieth Century Philosophy : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Concept Time Early Twentieth Century Philosophy : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Concept Time Early Twentieth Century Philosophy : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
