Writing Revolution in Latin America Juan E. De Castro,2019-09-15 In the politically volatile period from the 1960s through the end of the twentieth century Latin American authors were in direct dialogue with the violent realities of their time and place Writing Revolution in Latin America is a chronological study of the way revolution and revolutionary thinking is depicted in the fiction composed from the eye of the storm From Mexico to Chile the gradual ideological evolution from a revolutionary to a neoliberal mainstream was a consequence of on the one hand the political hardening of the Cuban Revolution beginning in the late 1960s and on the other the repression dictatorships and economic crises of the 1970s and beyond Not only was socialist revolution far from the utopia many believed but the notion that guerrilla uprisings would lead to an easy socialism proved to be unfounded Similarly the repressive Pinochet dictatorship in Chile led to unfathomable tragedy and social mutation This double edged phenomenon of revolutionary disillusionment became highly personal for Latin American authors inside and outside Castro s and Pinochet s dominion Revolution was more than a foreign affair it was the stuff of everyday life and therefore of fiction Juan De Castro s expansive study begins ahead of the century with Jos Mart in Cuba and continues through the likes of Mario Vargas Llosa in Peru Gabriel Garc a M rquez in Colombia and Roberto Bola o in Mexico by way of Chile The various often contradictory ways the authors convey this precarious historical moment speaks in equal measure to the social circumstances into which these authors were thrust and to the fundamental differences in the ways they themselves witnessed history Reference & User Services Quarterly ,2006
