Destiny's Other Poems James Harrington:

Destiny's Run and Other Poems James Harrington, 2015-12-06 Poems by James Carroll Harrington The Congregationalist, 1915 Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art, 1886 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 Renaissance Poetry Cristina Malcomson, 2016-07-01 This book the first single volume to collate essays about sixteenth and seventeenth century poetry explores the remarkable changes that have occurred in the interpretation of English Renaissance poetry in the last twenty years In the introduction Cristina Malcolmson argues that recent critical approaches have transformed traditional accounts of literary history by analysing the role of poetry in nationalism the changing associations of poetry and class status and the rediscovered writings of women The collection represents many of the critical methodologies which have contributed to these changes new historicism cultural materialism feminism and an historically informed psychoanalytic criticism In particular three diverse readings of Spenser's Bower of Bliss canto illustrate the different approaches of formalist close reading new historicist analysis of cultural imperialism and feminist interpretations of the relation of gender and power The further reading section categorizes recent work according to issues and critical approaches The Congregationalist and Christian World, 1915 Catalogue Maggs Bros, 1898

Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume 1 Philip A. Greasley, 2001-05-30 The Dictionary of Midwestern Literature Volume One surveys the lives and writings of nearly 400 Midwestern authors and identifies some of the most important criticism of their writings The Dictionary is based on the belief that the literature of any region simultaneously captures the experience and influences the worldview of its people reflecting as well as shaping the evolving sense of individual and collective identity meaning and values Volume One presents individual lives and literary orientations and offers a broad survey of the Midwestern experience as expressed by its many diverse peoples over time Philip A Greasley's introduction fills in background information and describes the philosophy focus methodology content and layout of entries as well as criteria for their inclusion An extended lead essay The Origins and Development of the Literature of the Midwest by David D Anderson provides a historical cultural and literary context in which the lives and writings of individual authors can be considered This volume is the first of an ambitious three volume series sponsored by the Society for the Study of Midwestern Literature and created by its members Volume Two will provide similar coverage of non author entries such as sites centers movements influences themes and genres Volume Three will be a literary history of the Midwest One goal of the series is to build understanding of the nature importance and influence of Midwestern writers and literature Another is to provide information on writers from the early years of the Midwestern experience as well as those now emerging who are typically absent from existing reference works The Penguin Book of Renaissance Verse H. Woudhuysen, 2005-05-26 The era between the accession of Henry VIII and the crisis of the English republic in 1659 formed one of the most fertile epochs in world literature This anthology offers a broad selection of its poetry and includes a wide range of works by the great poets of the age notably Sir Philip Sidney Edmund Spenser John Donne William Shakespeare and John Milton Poems by less well known writers also feature prominently among them significant female poets such as Lady Mary Wroth and Katherine Philips Compelling and exhilarating this landmark collection illuminates a time of astonishing innovation imagination and diversity

The Golden and the Brazen World John M. Wallace, 2023-11-15 The Golden and the Brazen World Papers in Literature and History 1650-1800 examines the evolving relationship between literature and history inspired by Sir Philip Sidney's Defence of Poetry Sidney's distinction between poetry's golden world which idealizes and conveys moral truths and history's brazen world focused on detailed but often confusing facts frames the central theme By the 18th century this rivalry had softened into a collaborative exchange with poets drawing on historical subjects for inspiration and historians using narrative techniques to enhance their work This interdisciplinary dialogue reflects their shared roots in moral philosophy and their complementary efforts to illuminate human experience The essays in this collection based on lectures from the Clark Library showcase this intersection through specific case studies Topics range from Andrew Marvell's The First Anniversary and its political poetic implications to re-evaluations of John Dryden's Absalom and Achitophel Contributions also include Susan Staves exploration of legal history in 18th century marriage and James Chandler's analysis of Edmund Burke's influence on Wordsworth Together these essays reveal how literature and history shape and inform each other highlighting their combined potential to enrich intellectual and cultural understanding This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1985
