Spirits of Place in American Literary Culture John Gatta, 2018-07-02 What might it mean existentially and spiritually to form an intimate relation with discrete sites or dwelling places on earth This book offers a uniquely integrative perspective on the matter Blending theological and cultural analysis it focuses on the multi layered witness enshrined in American literary texts and demonstrates that hallowed geography and the sacramentality of place have mattered throughout our history

Black on Earth Kimberly N. Ruffin, 2010-12-01 American environmental literature has relied heavily on the perspectives of European Americans often ignoring other groups In Black on Earth Kimberly Ruffin expands the reach of ecocriticism by analyzing the ecological experiences conceptions and desires seen in African American writing Ruffin identifies a theory of ecological burden and beauty in which African American authors underscore the ecological burdens of living within human hierarchies in the social order just as they explore the ecological beauty of being a part of the natural order Blacks were ecological agents before the emergence of American nature writing argues Ruffin and their perspectives are critical to understanding the full scope of ecological thought Ruffin examines African American ecological insights from the antebellum era to the twenty first century considering WPA slave narratives neo slave poetry novels essays and documentary films by such artists as Octavia Butler Alice Walker Henry Dumas Percival Everett Spike Lee and Jayne Cortez Identifying themes of work slavery religion mythology music and citizenship Black on Earth highlights the ways in which African American writers are visionary ecological artists

The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24 Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in depth examination of Carver s poems making a case for the quality of Carver s poetic output and showing the central role Carver s pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the inter relatedness of biological and cultural systems This idea is seen as informing Carver s entire production and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe s book is its contextualization of Carver s poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between

Carver's poetry and short story careers situates Carver's poetry within the love poem tradition explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories and examines Carver's use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness Tellingly Carver's poetry which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars is frequently taught to medical students This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver's work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe's culminating discussion of Carver's work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine
