Christian Theology And Islam Pro Ecclesia Pro Ecclesia Series:

Christian Theology and Islam James J Buckley, Michael Root, 2014-09-25 How can Christians committed to the classical Christian tradition address the issues raised by contemporary Islam Before a much needed dialogue between Christians and Muslims is established Christians need to ask themselves how their Scriptures and traditions might come to bear on such a dialogue Do the divisions among Catholic and Evangelical Christians fracture the classical Christian tradition in ways that undercut Christian Muslim dialogue before it has even begun Or could the classical tradition provide invaluable resources for resolving divisions between Catholic and Evangelical Christians in ways that would prepare them for meaningful conversation with Muslim brothers and sisters And what does it have to teach us about what Christians can and must learn from Muslims about their own traditions The scholarly essays compiled in Christian Theology and Islam consider these and further questions offering valuable insight for concerned Christians and academics in the fields of theology and religion

The Morally Divided Body Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2012-09-01 At the same time as Catholic and evangelical Christians have increasingly come to agree on issues that divided them during the sixteenth century reformations they seem increasingly to disagree on issues of contemporary morality and ethics Do such arguments doom the prospects for realistic full communion between Catholics and evangelicals Or are such disagreements a new opportunity for Catholics and evangelicals to convert together to the triune God's word and work on the communion of saints for the world Or should our hope be different than simple pessimism or optimism In this volume eight authors address different aspects of these questions hoping to move Christians a small step further toward the visible unity of the church

The Emerging Christian Minority Victor Lee Austin, Joel C. Daniels, 2019-02-07 An increase in secularization throughout the Western world has resulted in Christian communities finding themselves in a new context emerging as a minority group What does this changing landscape mean for existing Christian communities Are there biblical or historical precedents for this situation What should we expect in the future These were the issues taken up by the speakers at the 2016 conference The Emerging Christian Minority sponsored by the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology Contributors David Novak William T Cavanaugh Paige Hochschild David Novak Kathryn Schifferdecker Anton Vrame Joseph Small

Heaven, Hell, . . . and Purgatory? Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2015-09-14 What is our destiny The final end of humanity and the universe is a subject of perennial interest especially for Christians What are we promised Will anyone finally be left out of God's intentions to bless humanity What sort of transformation will be needed to enter the presence of God These questions have been at the heart of Christian teachings about last things The 2013 Pro Ecclesia Conference of the Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology focused such issues on the theme Heaven Hell and Purgatory The six essays in this volume cover a range of topics of interest to Catholic Evangelical and Orthodox theology

Who Do You Say That I Am? Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2014-09-03 No question is more central to Christian living preaching and theology than Jesus' question to his disciples Who do you say that I am Some would have it that pastors and theologians biblical exegetes and historians dogmatic and moral theologians Catholic and Evangelical have more differences than similarities in the way Christians with such diverse vocations respond to Jesus question And there is little doubt that there sometimes seem to be unbridgeable gulfs between the way historians and believers Internet gossipers and preachers classical christological debates and present day praying and pastoral care implicitly or explicitly address the Lord s question But the authors here address these and other issues in ways that are remarkably convergent as if a Catholic and Evangelical theology for proclaiming and following Jesus today has emerged or is indeed emerging

What's the Good of Humanity? Victor Lee Austin, Joel C. Daniels, 2021-09-21 From a Christian perspective it could well be said that humanity a good gift of God is being undermined by the technology and thought patterns and practices of contemporary Western culture In response to what is seen as an attack many books have been written on the harm of these technologically driven practices These articles and books focus on what is wrong with euthanasia with surrogate motherhood with the denial of the male female difference and so forth Yet to make a compelling cultural witness it is more important for Christians to know what is right and essential that they be able to articulate the positive Why do babies matter What is the goodness embedded in being made male and female How can one approach death in a godly manner We need in other words to be able to give an account of God s Yes 2 Cor 1 20 the hope that is within us 1 Peter 3 15 In this collection of essays an ecumenical group of scholars of diverse perspectives discuss these and other important questions in order to help discern what is good for humanity With contributions by Phillip Cary Donna Freitas Paul Hinlicky Edith M Humphrey Patrick Lee Gilbert Meilaender Nancey Murphy

Mixed Blessings Victor Lee Austin, 2025-02-20 In this volume theologians and pastors from varying Christian traditions who are rooted in the church and share appreciation for the Christian theological tradition grapple with the mixed blessings of their respective theological inheritances Phillip Cary writes on Augustine Frederick Christian Bauerschmidt on Aquinas Amy C Schiffrin on Luther Carolyn A Chau on Balthasar and David Luy on Pannenberg each identifying where they see their theologian coming up short but in light of what they got right To conclude the volume Chad Raith II unpacks how his own convictions changed regarding infant baptism This collection of essays is a testament to the importance of ecumenical church based critical yet appreciative receptive theology

Repentance and Forgiveness Matthew E. Burdette, Victor Lee Austin, 2020-09-24 Reconciliation is at the heart of the Christian faith It is what God accomplishes by the incarnation of his Son by Jesus cross resurrection and exaltation that all people be drawn to God in Christ and in being so drawn drawn into fellowship with one another The good news of reconciliation is therefore also a call to repent and to receive forgiveness and then concomitantly to forgive The present volume endeavors to reexamine these most fundamental Christian claims These essays which were first presented at the 2017 annual Pro Ecclesia conference return to the biblical sources to help us understand reconciliation afresh The authors raise questions about repentance and forgiveness from various perspectives Jewish Roman Catholic Orthodox and

Protestant They also consider our present day context what has been called the technoculture as well as the practice of repentance and forgiveness

Life Amid the Principalities Michael Root, James J. Buckley, 2016-09-15 We are not contending against flesh and blood but against the principalities against the powers against the world rulers of this present darkness Eph 6 12 So Paul warns his Ephesian readers And yet Paul also says that these principalities and powers were created in and for Christ Col 1 16 and cannot separate us from the love of God Rom 8 38 What are the principalities and powers of our time How do we understand them as created fallen and disarmed How does the Christian today engage these powers These are the questions speakers and participants addressed at the 2014 Center for Catholic and Evangelical Theology

The Sermon on the Mount Victor Lee Austin, 2025-03-10 Although a central Christian text the Sermon on the Mount remains full of mystery In this book an ecumenical group of scholars guides us from exegesis to theology to application to proclamation Marianne Meye Thompson grounds the Sermon in the narrative of Matthew's Gospel Piotr Maysz provides theological amazement at the Sermon being at once law and gospel David Cloutier works with the Sermon to understand and critique our culture of victimhood Brent Waters explores its economic realism Sarah Hinlicky Wilson concludes with a poetic paraphrase and reflections on how to preach on the Sermon as a whole As a special supplement and continuing the concern of Pro Ecclesia for doing theology ecumenically Michael Root examines the changes in the ecumenical movement over the past generation This volume as a whole is offered pro ecclesia for the building up of the church
