,1860* The Charisma of Distant Places Courtney Luckhardt, 2019-07-15 This cultural history of early medieval travel and religion reveals how movement affected society demonstrating the connectedness of people and regions between 500 and 850 CE In The Charisma of Distant Places Courtney Luckhardt enriches our understanding of migration through her examination of religious movement Vertical links to God and horizontal links to distant regions identified religious travelers both men and women as holy connected to the human and the divine across physical and spiritual distances Using textual sources material culture and place studies this project is among the first to contextualize the geographic and temporal movement of early medieval people to reveal the diversity of religious travel from the voluntary journeys of pilgrims to the forced travel of Christian slaves Luckhardt offers new ways of understanding ideas about power holiness identity and mobility during the transformation of the Roman world in the global Middle Ages By focusing on the religious dimensions of early medieval people and the regions they visited this book addresses probing questions including how and why medieval people communicated and connected with one another across boundaries both geographical and imaginative Baroque

Antiquity Victor Plahte Tschudi, 2017 As if in a Bright Mirror Conclusion Notes Abbreviations Bibliography of Cited Works Index Imagined Romes C. David Benson, 2019-05-10 This volume explores the conflicting representations of ancient Rome one of the most important European cities in the medieval imagination in late Middle English poetry Once the capital of a great pagan empire whose ruined monuments still inspired awe in the Middle Ages Rome the seat of the pope became a site of Christian pilgrimage owing to the fame of its early martyrs whose relics sanctified the city and whose help was sought by pilgrims to their shrines C David Benson analyzes the variety of ways that Rome and its citizens both pre Christian and Christian are presented in a range of Middle English poems from lesser known anonymous works to the poetry of Gower

Chaucer Langland and Lydgate Benson discusses how these poets conceive of ancient Rome and its citizens especially the women of Rome as well as why this matters to their works An insightful and innovative study Imagined Romes addresses a crucial lacuna in the scholarship of Rome in the medieval imaginary and provides fresh perspectives on the work of four of the most prominent Middle English poets Heroic Forms Stephen Rupp, 2014-01-01 In Cervantes and the Literature of War Stephen Rupp connects Cervantes's complex and inventive approach to literary genre and his many representations of early modern warfare Rome's Holy Mountain Jason Moralee, 2018 Rome's Holy Mountain is the first book to chart the history of the Capitoline Hill in Late Antiquity from the third to the seventh centuries CE It investigates both the lived in and dreamed of realities of the hill in an era of fundamental political religious and social change The Christian observer [afterw.]

The Christian observer and advocate, 1872 Looking at it from There Veronica L. Trimble, 1928 Cities, Texts and Social Networks, 400-1500 Caroline Goodson, Anne E. Lester, Carol Symes, 2017-05-15 Cities Texts and Social Networks examines the experiences of urban life from late antiquity through the close of the fifteenth century in regions ranging from late Imperial Rome to Muslim Syria Iraq and al Andalus England the territories of medieval Francia Flanders the Low Countries Italy and Germany Together the volume's contributors move beyond attempts to define the city in purely legal economic or religious terms Instead they focus on modes of organisation representation and identity formation that shaped the ways urban spaces were called into being used and perceived Their interdisciplinary analyses place narrative and archival sources in communication with topography the built environment and evidence of sensory stimuli in order to capture sights sounds physical proximities and power structures Paying close attention to the delineation of public and private spaces and secular and sacred precincts each chapter explores the workings of power and urban discourse and their effects on the making of meaning The volume as a whole engages theoretical discussions of urban space its production consumption memory and meaning which too frequently misrepresent the evidence of the Middle Ages It argues that the construction and use of medieval urban spaces could foster the emergence of medieval public spheres that were fundamental components and by products of pre modern urban life The resulting collection contributes to longstanding debates among historians while tackling fundamental questions regarding medieval society and the ways it is understood today Many of these questions will resonate with scholars of postcolonial or non Western cultures whose sources and cities have been similarly marginalized in discussions of urban space and experience And because these essays reflect a considerable geographical temporal and methodological scope they model approaches to the study of urban history that will interest a wide range of readers
