Progress in Theology Gijsbert van den Brink, Rik Peels, Bethany Sollereder, 2024-07-10 This book explores the intriguing relationship between theology science and the ideal of progress from a variety of perspectives While seriously discussing the obstacles and pitfalls related to the notion of progress in theology it argues that there are in fact many different kinds of progress in theology It considers how this sheds positive light on what theologians do and suggests that other disciplines in the humanities can equally profit from these ideas The chapters provide tools for making further progress in theology featuring detailed case studies to show how progress in theology works in practice and connecting with the role and place of theology in the University The book rearticulates in multiple ways theology's distinctive voice at the interface of science and religion

Saved by Faith and Hospitality Joshua W. Jipp, 2017-08-21 Too few Christians today says Joshua Jipp understand hospitality to strangers and the marginalized as an essential part of the church's identity In this book Jipp argues that God's relationship to his people is fundamentally an act of hospitality to strangers and that divine and human hospitality together are thus at the very heart of Christian faith Jipp first provides a thorough interpretation of the major biblical texts related to the practice of hospitality to strangers considering especially how these texts portray Christ as the divine host who extends God's welcome to all people Jipp then invites readers to consider how God's hospitality sets the pattern for human hospitality offering suggestions on how the practice of welcoming strangers can guide the church in its engagement with current social challenges immigration incarceration racism and more

Doing the Work of Comparative Theology Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2020-01-28 In a world that is more religiously diverse than ever before our coworkers and neighbors may well be adherents of other faiths But how many of us really grasp the similarities and differences between the major world religions Comparative theology is one increasingly important way to bridge this gap especially for Christian leaders and professors but also for lay people and students Veli Matti K rkk inen introduces the nature and work of comparative theology then delves into a detailed doctrine by doctrine comparison of Christian teachings with those of historical and contemporary Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism With every doctrine he first presents a summary of consensual Christian belief and then orients the reader to the distinctive teachings of other faith traditions highlighting parallels and differences Ideal for students ministers instructors and lay people interested in interfaith dialogue Doing the Work of Comparative Theology distills the comparative theological rigor of K rkk inen s Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series into an accessible and user friendly textbook Readers will not only learn basic methodology but also begin to undertake the actual work of comparative theology

Wrestling with God in Context M. P. Joseph,Po Ho Huang,Victor Hsu,2018-12-01 Shoki Coe was among the first to speak of contextualization in theology Coe argued that theology is not a reiteration of past formulas or doctrines but a response to the self disclosing initiative of the living God in history and human experience Yet he remains little known outside his native Taiwan Wrestling with God in Context introduces Coe s work and social vision and evaluates his contributions to the field of missiology and ecclesiology Eager to offer a creative and critical witness to Christian faith Coe worked tirelessly to liberate theology from its Western captivity and shaped a generation of theological reflection on God culture and history For thousands of students and church members around the world Shoki Coe was the spiritual father that guided their contextual theological pursuit to the living reality of God In order to reflect on his legacy the chapters in this volume including original essays from Stephen Bevans Dwight Hopkins and Enrique Dussel tackle the critical methodological issues related to doing theology reading the Scriptures and being the church

Taking Off

Roofs and Building Bridges Alan J. Pihringer, 2022-09-27 Why don't they believe the same things I do? Why don't they see things my way? We get frustrated when people hold differing opinions from ours or view life's major issues from conflicting angles. Their system of belief, their worldview seems foreign to us as they filter the events of this world in ways that we would never have imagined and then come to conclusions that we would never even consider. When other people's worldviews contradict ours, both of us cannot be right. Is there a way to account for the differences and determine if one is right and the other wrong? For the Christian, especially, can we defend the Christian worldview in a way that upholds our entire system of belief and then opens the door to share the gospel with those who believe differently from us? The method of worldview apologetics enables the Christian to expose the faults in other worldviews, demonstrate the truth of the Christian worldview, and build a bridge for others to hear the gospel of Jesus Christ. Both scholarly and practical worldview apologetics equips the Christian to assess and critique differing belief systems and fulfill the call to Great Commission outreach.

The Past, Present, and Future of Theologies of Interreligious Dialogue Terrence Merrigan, John Friday, 2017-03-17 The Past, Present, and Future of Theology of Interreligious Dialogue brings together several of the most widely regarded specialists who have contributed to theological reflection on religious diversity and interreligious encounter. The chapters are united by the consistent theme of the obligation to engage with the challenges that emerge from the tension between the doctrinal traditions of Christianity and the need to reconsider them in light of and in response to the fact of religious otherness. As a whole, these reflections are motivated by the desire to bring together a significant selection of different theological approaches that have been developed and appropriated in order to engage with religious difference in the past and present as well as to suggest possibilities for the future. This confluence of perspectives reveals the complexity of theological reflection on religious diversity and gives some indication of future challenges that must be acknowledged and perhaps successfully met in the ongoing attempt to address a universal reality in light of traditional doctrinal particularities and cultural concerns.
