Christianity And The State In Asia Complicity And Conflict:

Christianity and the State in Asia Julius Bautista, Francis Khek Gee Lim, 2009-09-11 Christianity is one of the most rapidly growing religions in Asia. Despite the challenges of political marginalisation, church organisations throughout much of Asia are engaged in activities such as charity, education and commentary on public morality that may either converge or conflict with the state's interests. Considering Christianity's growing prominence and the various ways Asian nation states respond to this growth, this book brings into sharper analytical focus the ways in which the faith is articulated at the local, regional and global level. Contributors from diverse disciplinary and institutional backgrounds offer in-depth analyses of the complex interactions between Asian nation states and Christianity in the context of modernisation and nation building. Exploring the social and political ramifications of Christian conversions in Asia and their impact on state policies, the book analyses how Christian followers, missionaries, theologians and activists negotiate their public roles and identities vis-à-vis various forms of Asian states, particularly in the context of post-colonial nation building and socio-economic development. This volume represents a critical contribution to the existing scholarship on Christianity's global reach and its local manifestations and demonstrates the significance of the Asian experience in our understanding of Christianity as a global religion.

Christianity and the State in Asia Julius Bautista, Francis Khek Gee Lim, 2009-09-11 This book examines how Christians in Asia express their religion under the spectre of the nation state and processes of globalization. Considering Christianity's growing prominence and the various ways Asian nation states respond to this growth, this book brings into sharper analytical focus the ways in which the faith is articulated at the local, regional and global level. The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred, 2014 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies. Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity, there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia. This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions, including worship, theology, spirituality, inter-religious relations, interventions in society and mission. The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia. They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio-political and cultural processes of colonization, decolonization, modernization, democratization, identity construction of social groups and various social movements. With a particular focus on inter-religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms, the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia. Christianity and the Chinese in Indonesia Chang-Yau Hoon, 2023-05-18 Filling a scholarly gap on the study of Christianity among the Chinese in Indonesia, this book addresses issues of state-religion relations and state policy on religion, contested religious space, elite Chinese philanthropy, evangelism and multiculturalism, citizenship, education and Christian faith aspirations.

Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world s Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide

The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume IV Jehu J. Hanciles, 2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled

Asia Pacific Pentecostalism ,2019-07-01 Asia Pacific Pentecostalism edited by Denise A Austin Jacqueline Grey and Paul W Lewis yields previously untold stories and interdisciplinary analysis of pioneer foundations denominational growth leadership training contextualisation and community development across East Asia Southeast Asia and Oceania Pentecostalism in the Asia Pacific has made an enormous contribution to its global family from the more visible influence of Yonggi Cho from Korea to the worship revolutions from Australia particularly associated with Hillsong and the lesser known missionary activity from Fiji each region has contributed significantly to global Christianity Some communities prospered despite hostile environments and wartime devastation This volume provides a systematic study of the geographical contexts of Asia Pacific Pentecostalism including historical

James, 2022-03-14 In this book Dr Manohar James explores how Hindu intolerance has contributed to anti Christian propaganda over the centuries how such intolerance has informed the conclusions of the Niyogi Committee Report and how the Report s ongoing publications redactions and recessions have intensified anti Christian rhetoric in India over the last six decades The Mission of Development , 2018-05-29 The Mission of Development interrogates the complex relationships between Christian mission and international development in Asia from the 19th century to the new millennium Through historically and ethnographically grounded case studies contributors examine how missionaries have adapted to and shaped the age of development and processes of technocratisation as well as how mission and development have sometimes come to be cast in opposition The volume takes up an increasingly prominent strand in contemporary research that reverses the prior occlusion of the entanglements between religion and development It breaks new ground through its analysis of the techno politics of both development and mission and by focusing on the importance of engagements and encounters in the field in Asia Negotiating the Christian Past in China Jifeng Liu, 2023-08-01 At the turn of the twenty first century Xiamen s pursuit of World Heritage Site designation from UNESCO stimulated considerable interest in the city s Christian past History enthusiasts both Christian and non Christian devoted themselves to reinterpreting the legacy of missionaries and challenged official narratives of Christianity s troubled associations with Western imperialism In this book Jifeng Liu documents the tension that has inevitably emerged between the established official history and these popular efforts This volume elucidates the ways in which Christianity has become an integral part of Xiamen a Chinese city profoundly influenced by Western missionaries Drawing on extensive interviews locally produced histories and observations of historical celebrations Liu provides an intimate portrait of the people who navigate ideological issues to reconstruct a Christian past reproduce religious histories and redefine local power structures in the shadow of the state Liu makes a compelling argument that a Christian past is being constructed that combines official frameworks unofficial practices and nostalgia into social memory a realm of dynamic negotiation that is neither dominated by the authoritarian state nor characterized by popular resistance In this way Negotiating the Christian Past in China illustrates the complexities of memory and missions in shaping the city s cultural landscape church state dynamics and global aspirations This groundbreaking study assumes a perspective of globalization and localization in both the past and the present to better understand Chinese Christianity in a local national and global context It will be welcomed by scholars of religious studies and world Christianity and by those interested in the church state
