Christians Among The Virtues Theological Conversations Modern Ethics:

Christians among the Virtues Stanley Hauerwas, Charles Pinches, 2022-12-06 Christians among the Virtues investigates the distinctiveness of virtues as illuminated by Christian practice using a discussion of Aristotle's ethics together with the work of significant contemporary scholars such as Alasdair MacIntyre and Martha Nussbaum. Hauerwas and Pinches converse with, learn from, and also critically engage powerful and explicitly non-Christian accounts of virtues and then form a specifically Christian account of certain key virtues including obedience, hope, courage, and patience. This book will deepen the current public debate about virtue by showing how different traditions and practices yield distinctive understandings of the virtues and by articulating the particularity of virtues informed by Christian practice. Hauerwas and Pinches begin with a discussion of Aristotle's account of happiness, virtue, and friendship and explore how the temporal character of life threatens the possibility of being virtuous. The authors then contrast this idea with the Christian recognition of our temporal limitations as a call to virtue rather than a threat. In the second section, the authors address a work by John Casey which attempts to present an account of the virtues purged of their Christian heritage. This analysis, as well as the critical readings of MacIntyre and Nussbaum, will be of particular interest to philosophers and theologians alike. The authors bring a theological voice to the popular and philosophical debates about virtue. While the work encourages Christians to think about what is unique to Christian virtue, its specificity does not limit its applicability but opens up and deepens the debate over the particular interpretations of virtues, calling on others to present more specific articulations of what it means to be courageous, obedient, hopeful, and patient and to contrast those accounts with the Christian interpretations presented by the authors. In this respect, Christians among the Virtues is the first work in what could be called the second stage of the recovery of the virtues: the work of understanding the difference among interpretations of the virtues in the light of different practices and traditions.

Christians Among the Virtues Stanley Hauerwas, Charles Robert Pinches, 2019 Christians among the Virtues investigates the distinctiveness of virtues as illuminated by Christian practice using a discussion of Aristotle's ethics together with the work of significant contemporary scholars such as Alasdair MacIntyre and Martha Nussbaum. Hauerwas and Pinches converse with, learn from, and critically engage non-Christian accounts of virtue and then form a specifically Christian account of key virtues.

Christians Among the Virtues Stanley Hauerwas, Charles Robert Pinches, 2009 Christians among the Virtues investigates the distinctiveness of virtues as illuminated by Christian practice using a discussion of Aristotle's ethics together with the work of significant contemporary scholars such as Alasdair MacIntyre and Martha Nussbaum. Global Justice, Christology and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2013-01-17 Global realities of human inequality, poverty, violence, and ecological destruction call for a twenty-first century Christian response which links cross-cultural and interreligious cooperation for change to the Gospel. This book demonstrates why just action is necessarily a criterion of authentic Christian theology and gives grounds for Christian hope that change in violent structures is really possible Lisa Sowle Cahill argues that theology and biblical interpretation are already embedded in and indebted to ethical political practices and choices Within this ecumenical study she explores the use of the historical Jesus in constructive theology the merits of Word and Spirit Christologies the importance of liberation and feminist theologies as well as theologies from the global south and also the possibility of qualified moral universalism The book will be of great interest to all students of theology religious ethics and politics and biblical studies Happiness and the Christian Moral Life Paul J. Wadell, 2024-10-29 As one of the most widely adopted textbooks in the field Happiness and the Christian Moral Life introduces students to Christian ethics through the lens of happiness Drawing on classical and contemporary Christian sources Paul Wadell proposes that the heart of the moral life is not rules and obligations but our deep desire for happiness and fulfillment The fourth edition of this accessible and student friendly text has been revised and updated throughout It introduces Christian ethics with sensitivity towards readers who may not be Christian themselves After setting out the principal argument of the book in the opening chapter subsequent chapters explore the importance of narrative or story for Christian ethics a Christian understanding of the person and vocation the role of the virtues in our quest for happiness the centrality of justice in the moral life the place of friendship and community in a good and flourishing life a Christian theology of freedom how sin hinders one's growth in happiness the meaning and importance of conscience and a Christian understanding of love The fourth addition also includes new sections on several topics such as the Beatitudes forgiveness and reconciliation the social thought of Pope Francis the challenges of climate change and global warming recent thinking on gender and sexual ethics by theologian Bridget Burke Ravizza a politics of charity and racism and ongoing racial conflict This edition also features fresh global examples revised introductions to key thinkers and figures expanded treatment of the theological virtues and a list of key terms at the end of every chapter Longing for the Good Life: Virtue Ethics after Protestantism Pieter Vos, 2020-11-12 This book argues that Protestant theological ethics not only reveals basic virtue ethical characteristics but also contributes significantly to a viable contemporary virtue ethics Pieter Vos demonstrates that post Reformation theological ethics still understands the good in terms of the good life takes virtues as necessary for living the good life and considers human nature as a source of moral knowledge Vos approaches Protestant theology as an important bridge between pre modern virtue ethics shaped by Aristotle and transformed by Augustine of Hippo and late modern understandings of morality The volume covers a range of topics going from eudaimonism and Calvinist ethics to Reformed scholastic virtue ethics and character formation in the work of Søren Kierkegaard The author shows how Protestantism has articulated other centered virtues from a theology of grace affirmed ordinary life and emphasized the need of transformation of this life and its orders Engaging with philosophy of the art of living Neo Aristotelianism and exemplarist ethics he develops constructive contributions to a contemporary virtue ethics Reviving Evangelical Ethics Wyndy

Protestant Virtue and Stoic Ethics Elizabeth Agnew Cochran,2017-12-28 The Stoics are known to have been a decisive influence on early Christian moral thought but the import of this influence for contemporary Christian ethics has been underexplored Elizabeth Agnew Cochran argues that attention to the Stoics enriches a Christian understanding of the virtues illuminating precisely how historical Protestant theology gives rise to a distinctive virtue ethic Through examining the dialogue between Roman Stoic ethics and the work of Martin Luther John Calvin and Jonathan Edwards Cochran illuminates key theological convictions that provide a foundation for a contemporary Protestant virtue ethic consistent with theological beliefs characteristic of the historical Reformed tradition The Oxford Handbook of Virtue

Nancy E. Snow,2018 The late twentieth and early twenty first centuries have seen a renaissance in the study of virtue a topic that has prevailed in philosophical work since the time of Aristotle Several major developments have conspired to mark this new age Foremost among them some argue is the birth of virtue ethics an approach to ethics that focuses on virtue in place of consequentialism the view that normative properties depend only on consequences or deontology the study of what we have a moral duty to do The emergence of new virtue theories also marks this new wave of work on virtue Put simply these are theories about what virtue is and they include Kantian and utilitarian virtue theories Concurrently virtue ethics is being applied to other fields where it hasn't been used before including bioethics and education In addition to these developments the study of virtue in epistemological theories has become increasingly widespread to the point that it has spawned a subfield known as virtue epistemology This volume therefore provides a representative overview of philosophical work on virtue It is divided into seven parts conceptualizations of virtue historical and religious accounts contemporary virtue ethics and theories of virtue central concepts and issues critical examinations applied virtue ethics and virtue epistemology Forty two chapters by distinguished scholars offer insights and directions for further research In addition to philosophy authors also deal with virtues in non western philosophical traditions religion and psychological perspectives on virtue Hauerwas the Peacemaker? Nathan Scot Hosler,2020-04-14 War has been abolished in Christ is a strong claim by theologian Stanley Hauerwas Wars however continue to rage and historic numbers of people are displaced globally Despite critics assessments that Hauerwas contributes to Christians disengaging his work provides certain tools for the work of peacebuilding In this work Hauerwas's contribution to peacemaking as a part of his ecclesiology and broader theological ethical work will be assessed Hauerwas's peacemaking within his work stands within the context of ecclesiology and related themes of witness and Christology The possibilities of his work on peacemaking to extend to peacebuilding practice and foreign policy formation are explored and a critique is leveled regarding his engagement with racial justice Additionally certain practices of reading in theology and training in this language are extrapolated to engage the task of policy formation and analysis in contexts where religion is an active factor This study concludes that Hauerwas's theological ethics of peacemaking makes a valuable contribution but must be extended into specific practices
