Choose Life A Dialogue Echoes And Reflections:

Hai Shang, Elegy of the Sea Yiwei Wang, 2015 This invaluable book provides a reflective analysis on European civilization through a Chinese cultural perspective along with the author's diplomatic experiences in Brussels on the Chinese Mission to the European Union. The book has three main focuses: maritime civilization, human civilization, and the relations between Chinese East and European West civilization. It aims to stimulate discussion to rethink the East West relations in terms of globalization and its contributions to a new post maritime human civilization. Hai Shang means elegy of the sea, He Shang means elegy of the river. Contents: Europe in Debt, Civilization in Decline, Decline of European Maritime Civilization, Self Abuse, A European Story, Modern European Civilization, What is What, Maritime Civilization, Case of Schizobulia, European Civilization a la China, When China Sets Sail, G2: How China and Europe Coexist, China Time for Something, European Readership. Undergraduate students studying Asian history and general public similarly interested in the analysis of East West relations from a historical and cultural perspective. The Chinese Dream and Law Shiping Hua, 2025-08-01 Analyzes the major laws promulgated during the Xi Jinping era against a background of the politics and ideology of the Xi regime in general. The Chinese Dream and Law study situates the Chinese Dream in the modern utopianism discourse since the Late Qing following Kang Youwei and Mao Zedong. As a tool to promote the Chinese Dream, the legal reforms during the period depart from the thin constitutionalism of the first three decades of the post Mao era and resemble aspects of Legalism. Although the current regime has made some progress in protecting people's socioeconomic rights through law, it has retreated on upholding judicial independence to protect people's civil and political rights, especially those vis-à-vis the state. The first three decades since post Mao reform are an aberration that deviates from the normal trajectory of modern Chinese political development. The decade-long efforts by the current regime have slowed the growing official corruption and have slightly narrowed the growing income gap, although economic growth was cut in half. The Chinese style of utopianism could mean a better place as in the country's ancient past. It could also become a no place in the modern diverse world because this human hope that has a universal claim is often built on authoritarian means. Beyond Global Crisis Terrence Edward Paupp, 2017-09-29 In this volume Terrence Paupp critically describes the various dimensions of today's global crisis. Among other things, this volume analyzes nuclear weapons proliferation, climate change, and international lawlessness in the form of wars of aggression. Paupp argues that much human conflict and environmental degradation is the direct consequence of poverty and inequality. Until these issues are addressed, many of the world's problems will remain. Paupp asserts that around the world, peoples and nations are becoming more open to a strategy and culture of peace that evolves through discovering a commonality of interests, the value of mutual cooperation, and the desirability of forging consensus. By using various road maps and remedies supplied by noted Japanese peace activist Daisaku Ikeda and his contemporaries, viable solutions will emerge. In this new endeavor, equipped with some of the proposed solutions and strategies that this book provides, humanity will collectively come engaged in remaking the character of global governance in order to build a global culture of peace Reflections on the Global Civilization Majid Tehranian, Daisaku Ikeda, 2015-12-21 Globalization has brought different civilizations and peoples into new and closer contact But this novel intimacy has not always led to greater understanding There is an urgent need to work towards a global civilization based on principles of peace mutual respect and tolerance It is precisely that goal which the participants attempt in this classic dialogue Inspired by the encounters between Buddhism and Islam as they exchanged ideas and goods along the Silk Road it brings together a Sufi Muslim from Iran and one of the world's most influential lay Buddhist leaders to explore the vibrant areas of common ground between the Islamic and Buddhist traditions Coloured by Sufi philosophy and by Buddhist thought and practice and drawing on a diverse selection of thinkers including Rumi and Hafez Rabindranath Tagore Jurgen Habermas and Antonio Gramsci Reflections on the Global Civilization offers a profound meditation on conflict loss and injustice as well as the vitality of interfaith discussion It shows that Islam and

Buddhism have much to offer not only to each other but also to the world as a whole Human Rights in the Twenty-first Century Austregesilo de Athayde, Daisaku Ikeda, 2009-04-30 Austregesilo de Athayde President of the Brazilian Academy of Letters for 34 years until his death in September 1993 is perhaps best remembered as one of the most prominent and effective South American champions of human rights Athayde played a major role in drafting the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights which was adopted in December 1948 The dialogue begins with a discussion of some of the great modern espousers of human rights including Mahatma Gandhi Martin Luther King and Nelson Mandela Athayde then recounts how the UN declaration came into being and describes his role in the process Ikeda meanwhile explores the Buddhist ideas of mercy freedom and equality and discusses their potential to enrich the human rights movement The Dialogue as a whole represents a provocative and thoughtful introduction to the compassionate thought of two leading proponents of social justice José Martí, Cuban Apostle Cintio Vitier, Daisaku Ikeda, 2013-09-17 Once called the proponents of social justice José Martí, Cuban Apostle Cintio Vitier, Daisaku Ikeda, 2013-09-17 Once called the wellspring of the revolution by Fidel Castro Jose Marti 1853 1895 is revered as one of the greatest figures in the history of Cuba Not only was he instrumental in the late nineteenth century cause of securing Cuban independence from Spain He is also considered one of Cuba s most brilliant writers orators and formative intellectuals who provided inspiration to the young Fidel Che and their fellow revolutionaries by dedicating his whole life to the goal of national political emancipation Jose Marti suffered persecution and early imprisonment for his convictions and in consequence is often referred to as the Cuban Apostle In this wide ranging discussion of Marti s life work and influence distinguished Cuban poet Cintio Vitier and prominent Buddhist leader Daisaku Ikeda explore their subject s understanding of non violence his nationalism that was also a profound openness to difference and dialogue his spirituality his poetical writings and most of all his fundamental dignity humanity and self mastery The book explores above all the nature of sacrifice and the cost of relinquishing personal happiness for the sake of a great cause The discussants examine Marti s family life including his difficult relationships with his wife Carmen Zayas

Bazan and his parents who distanced themselves from his revolutionary fervour Comparisons are drawn between Marti's ideals and Nichiren Buddhism as a source of unfailing hope and courage As Daisaku Ikeda follower of Nichiren says at one point in the dialogue Self mastery is the hardest thing of all But to have a spiritual nature worthy of the name a person must overcome himself a task that only a true optimist can accomplish Marti's perspicacity is revealed in his conviction that final victory in life is assured by such optimists Marti like Nichiren had the unerring ability to turn enemies into friends And as Cintio Vitier and Daisaku Ikeda reveal what set Marti apart was not his thought or ideas alone but what emanated from his words and found embodiment in his actions It was thus that a follower at the time could say of him we don't understand him but we are ready to die for him

Compassionate Light in Asia Jin Yong, Daisaku Ikeda, 2013-09-17 Life is a drama of encounters writes Daisaku Ikeda at the beginning of this dialogue Beautiful encounters Momentary encounters Each person's drama is unique This particular encounter between a celebrated Chinese novelist and prominent Japanese religious leader illustrates the truth of that reflection For in the discussion that stemmed from their meetings Jin Yong who is sometimes called the Asian Dumas and Daisaku Ikeda were able to find remarkable common ground what they refer to as a karmic bond resulting from the particularity of their experiences in wartime and mutual resistance to adversity Ranging across a variety of engaging themes the interlocutors explore such topics as the nature of friendship theories of civilization world literatures that have inspired them the importance of free speech Buddhist perspectives on life and death and the spiritual search for truth There is sustained reflection on the horrors of war and a plea for the importance of memory Daisaku Ikeda emphasises that peace is a battle against forgetfulness while Jin Yong echoes this in his observation that most important is to strive to avoid war whether it is between countries and whether it be domestic and thus to enable people to build and improve their lives in a peaceful environment Cultural differences between the peoples of China and Japan are explored sometimes amusingly with the Japanese propensity for discipline and rules contrasted with the Chinese spirit of creative individualism But the authors are focused above all on serious issues of meaning and identity and they reveal the mutual solace both have found in the face of personal loss and bereavement in the Buddhist scriptures especially the Lotus Sutra Demonstrating a remarkable capacity for empathy throughout they incarnate in their lives and work an intelligent and sympathetic compassion that represents a beacon of hope to the future direction of Sino Japanese relations

A Lifelong Quest for Peace Linus Pauling, Daisaku Ikeda, 2008-10-30 Linus Pauling is celebrated as one of the greatest scientific minds of the last century whose decisive contributions to an astonishing diversity of fields including organic and inorganic chemistry quantum mechanics molecular biology and medicine still remain in many respects definitive Pauling was additionally a tireless campaigner against the perils of nuclear conflict and his contributions to both science and peace were recognized by the award to him of two separate Nobel Prizes In this philosophically broad and sinewy book he engages in complementary discussion with Daisaku Ikeda President of Soka Gakkai and another tireless champion for peace and dialogue Showcasing the central ideas and fundamental values of two of the leading pacifist minds of recent times A Lifelong Quest for Peace ranges over such perennially critical themes as ethics and technology the appropriate use to which science should be put the nature of morality and the human quest for progress justice and equality Both richly anecdotal and warmly engaging the discussions offer fascinating insights into and recollections from the interlocutors early lives and subsequent careers Pauling and Ikeda thereby demonstrate through warm personal example the essential and lasting value of constructive conversation between people of different backgrounds and contrasting cultures Human Values in a Changing World Bryan

Wilson,Daisaku Ikeda,2008-04-30 In a spontaneously wide ranging conversation one winter evening in Japan sociologist of religion Bryan Wilson and Buddhist philosopher Daisaku Ikeda recognized the importance of explaining and learning about their respective worldviews Human Values in a Changing World is the record of their further exchanges on how they see the religious response to the human condition Their contrasting approaches one as an academic and the other as a lay Buddhist allow for a constructive critique of preconceptions otherwise unexamined in their own cultural contexts There is an intimate connection between faith and the fruits of commitment Wilson says at one point To which Ikeda responds that while the benefits of faith to momentary happiness are perhaps not the core value of a religion they can inspire and lead people to become aware of that core value or fundamental truth The two men s observations on the origins of religious sensibilities move from the spiritual and the moral to the politics of private and public life Although published some years ago Human Values in a Changing World addresses topics and issues which are of perennial importance to human flourishing including sexual morality the limits of tolerance and religious freedom the future of the family the belief in an afterlife and the idea of sin Dialogues with/and Great Books David Fishelov,2011-10-06 What is the source of a book s perceived greatness and why do certain books become part of the accepted canon This book presents a fresh perspective on these questions against prevalent approaches it explains a work s reputation in terms of its aesthetic qualities or as the result of dictates by social hegemonies the power view
