Choosing Motherhood Stories Of Successful Women Who Put Family First:

Choosing Motherhood: Stories of Successful Women Who Put Family First Lia Collings, 2013 Choosing Motherhood Elise Hahl, Lia Collings, Rosalyn C. Eves, 2013 Motherhood or a career Which one truly matters Both are important in their own way but in Choosing Motherhood learn how these bright young LDS women from the Yale community while their peers were putting off motherhood or forgetting it entirely decided to become mothers and make an eternal difference in the lives of their children and their communities Choosing Single Motherhood Mikki Morrisette, 2006-04 The first comprehensive resource book available for women who have chosen or are thinking of choosing single motherhood Based on extensive research advice from child experts and family therapists and conversations with more than one hundred thinkers and single mothers this book funnels twenty five years of hindsight into up to date insight on all aspects of the Choice Motherhood movement From how to answer a child's daddy questions to the pros and cons of using a known donor to how the children of pioneering Choice Moms feel about the lifestyle this book is the one resource needed by every woman who makes this decision Mothers on the Fast Track Mary Ann Mason, Eve Mason Ekman, 2007-06-18 In the past few decades the number of women entering graduate and professional schools has been going up and up while the number of women reaching the top rung of the corporate and academic worlds has remained relatively stagnant Why are so many women falling off the fast track In this timely book Mary Ann Mason traces the career paths of the first generation of ambitious women who started careers in academia law medicine business and the media in large numbers in the 1970s and 80s Many women who had started families but continued working had ended up veering off the path to upper management at a point she calls the second glass ceiling Rather than sticking to their original career goals they allowed themselves to slide into a second tier of management that offers fewer hours less pay lower prestige and limited upward mobility Men who did likewise entered the career world with high aspirations and then started families while working not only did not show the same trend they reached even higher levels of professional success than men who had no families at all Along with her daughter an aspiring journalist Mason has written a guide for young women who are facing the tough decision of when and if to start a family It is also a guide for older women seeking a second chance to break through to the next level as Mason herself did in academia The book features anecdotes and strategies from the dozens of women they interviewed Advice ranges from the personal know when to say no the importance of time management to the institutional with suggestions for how the workplace itself can be changed to make it easier for ambitious working mothers to reach the top levels The result is a roadmap of new choices for women facing the sobering question of how to balance a successful career with family Successful Women Ceramic and Glass Scientists and Engineers Lynnette Madsen, 2016-01-15 Presents a diverse perspective of successful inspirational and progressive women in science and engineering Women of today from 29 countries provide overviews of their successful careers the challenges they faced and offer advice They have lived in the same era and perhaps also the same environment as you Successful Women Ceramic and Glass Scientists and Engineers 100 Inspirational Profiles features women born in the 1920 s to 1970 s Reflecting a diversity of backgrounds and different sectors of the workforce their profiles include Affiliation points of contact accomplishments most cited publication most prestigious recognitions awards etc personal insight on her best career moment Brief biography highlights of her successes images from her career Personal commentary on her own career and pointers for younger scientists building careers This book provides novelty inspiration motivation and a bright perspective for the next generation of scientists and engineers seeking exciting and fulfilling careers This book will be invaluable to mentors professors students and prospective students in science and engineering scholars of gender studies and scientific and engineering societies and organizations Lynnette Madsen has done a great service in writing this book not just for women but for society at large because in the twenty first century we can no longer underutilize or ignore that half of the best Rita Colwell Director United States National Science Foundation 1998 2004 Distinguished University Professor University of Maryland College Park and Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health The book shows that opportunities in science exist in many countries around the world Reading about the ways that took those women to their current positions is an exciting adventure Yury Gogotsi Professor Drexel University In addition to chronicling careers of great scientists this book presents an array of career paths to young women and men a must read Dr Rainer Waser Professor Aachen University Germany It is inspiring to see that the successful women highlighted in this work are approaching life with courage and joy they are changing paradigms and serving as voices for young girls They are passionate about making a difference and breaking barriers they are classy and fabulous Dr Olivia Graeve Professor University of California San Diego Working Mother ,2006-02 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Motherhood by Choice Perdita Huston,1992 To honor the 40th anniversary of the International Planned Parenthood Federation journalist Perdita Huston travelled the world to gather this remarkable collection of oral histories of and about the often unknown leaders of a worldwide movement to bring women their reproductive rights Drawing on personal interviews Huston delineates the motivations strategies and heartaches of twelve pioneers eight women four men both from the developing world before and after colonial rule and from industrialized countries who braved scorn and abuse to raise the issues of family planning contraception and sex education and to fight for improved healthcare for women These moving testimonies reflect the personal leadership style of each pioneer from Dr Evangelina Rodriguez the first woman doctor in the Dominican Republic who defied church policies and the corrupt dictator Trujillo to promote family planning and fight the spread of venereal disease to Miyoski Ohba who contended with innumerable taboos in postwar Japan to introduce poor villagers to the use of condoms to Elsie Ottsen Jensen born in 1886 to a poor Norwegian family of 17 children who became acutely aware of the high rate of maternal mortality throughout turn of the century Scandinavia and went on to found the Swedish Association of Sex Educators in 1933 Motherhood by Choice stands as a significant historical document tracing the development of public health services sex education and contraceptive services that will inspire and inform all who are concerned about women s health and reproductive rights Mom the Chemistry Professor Kimberly Woznick,Amber Charlebois,Renée Cole,Cecilia Marzabadi,Gail Webster,2018-07-28 When is the right time How can I meet the demands of a professorship whilst caring for a young family Choosing to become a mother has a profound effect on the career path of women holding academic positions especially in the physical sciences Yet many women successfully manage to do both In this second edition which is a project of the Women Chemists Committee WCC of the American Chemical Society ACS 40 inspirational personal accounts describe the challenges and rewards of combining motherhood with an academic career in chemistry The authors are all women at different stages of their career and from a range of institution types in both tenure and non tenure track positions The authors include women from different racial and ethnic backgrounds who became mothers at different stages of their career and who have a variety of family structures Aimed at undergraduate and graduate students of chemistry as well as postdoctoral fellows and early career faculty these contributions serve as examples for women considering a career in academia but worry about how this can be balanced with other important aspects of life The authors describe how they overcame particular challenges but also highlight aspects of the system which could be improved to accommodate women academics and particularly encourage more women to take on academic positions in the sciences
