Handbook of Adult Development Jack Demick, Carrie Andreoletti, 2012-12-06 This volume is an outgrowth of contemporary research on development over the adult lifespan which by now has burgeoned and developed both nationally and internationally However for us the impetus to be involved in this area was spawned and nurtured by our initial association with the Society for Research in Adult Development SRAD with its origins some 15 years ago by Michael Commons and his associates in Cambridge Massachusetts Through the good will and support of this society we also became and are still heavily involved with the Journal of Adult Development and the Kluwer Plenum Monograph Series on Adult Development and Aging of which this volume is a companion Many of the contributions in the volume are from SRAD members who consistently adhere to a focus on positive adult development Their chapters have been complemented by pieces from other researchers who have adopted more mainstream approaches to adult development and aging Regardless of the particular approach and or focus of the chapter all the work reported herein supports the relatively recent idea that development is not restricted to children and adolescents but continues throughout the adult lifespan in ways that we never envisioned some 20 years ago Thus the volume represents state of the art theory research and practice on adult development which has the potential to occupy us all for some time to come Jean Paton and the Struggle to Reform American Adoption E. Wayne

Carp, 2014-02-10 Jean Paton 1908-2002 fought tirelessly to reform American adoption and to overcome prejudice against adult adoptees and women who give birth out of wedlock Paton wrote widely and passionately about the adoption experience corresponded with policymakers as well as individual adoptees promoted the psychological well being of adoptees and facilitated reunions between adoptees and their birth parents E Wayne Carp's masterful biography brings to light the accomplishments of this neglected civil rights pioneer who paved the way for the explosive emergence of the adoption reform movement in the 1970s Her unflagging efforts over five decades helped reverse harmful policies practices and laws concerning adoption and closed records struggles that continue to this day The Spirit of Adoption Jeanne Stevenson

Moessner, 2003-01-01 In this theology of adoption Stevenson Moessner argues that while the church has long understood the grounding self concept of a Christian as a child of God it has failed to underscore that all people come into the family of faith by adoption Reports of All the Cases Decided by All the Superior Courts Relating to Magistrates, Municipal,
