Wengert,2016-11-14 With great clarity and insight James M Estes illuminates Luthers call to secular authorities to help with the reform of the church in this important 1520 treatise Starting with the Ninety Five Theses in 1517 Luthers appeals for reform had been addressed to the ecclesiastical hierarchy whose divinely imposed responsibility for such things he took for granted By the early months of 1520 however Luther had come to the conclusion that nothing could be expected from Rome but intransigent opposition to reform of any sort It was only at this point that he began to write of the need for secular rulers to intervene with measures that would clear the way for ecclesiastical reform Concerned that Christendom was going to ruin Luther argued that with such an emergency looming anyone who was able to do so should help in whatever way possible This volume is excerpted from The Annotated Luther series Volume 1 Each volume in the series contains new introductions annotations illustrations and notes to help shed light on Luthers context and to interpret his writings for today The translations of Luthers writings include updates of Luthers Works American Edition or new translations of Luthers German or Latin writings The Address to the Christian Nobility of the German Nation Gerald L. Zandstra,1993 Literature Suppressed on Religious Grounds Margaret Bald,2014-05-14 Literature Suppressed on Religious Grounds Revised Edition profiles the censorship of many such essential works of literature The entries new to this edition include extensive coverage of the Harry Potter series which has been frequently banned in the United States on the grounds that it promotes witchcraft as well as entries on two popular textbook series The Witches by Roald Dahl Women Without Men A Novel of Modern Iran and more Also included are updates to such entries as The Satanic Verses by Salman Rushdie and On the Origin of Species by Charles Darwin Peace, Order And the Glory of God James Martin Estes,2005 This volume is a comparative study of the development of the thought of Luther and Melanchthon on the role of secular magistrates in the church that in contrast to most earlier studies sees essential agreement between them despite differences of argumentation
