Creating Ever-cool Del Vecchio, Gene, 2010-09-23 WINNER OF THE 1997 ATTICUS AWARD STRATEGY CATEGORY Fantastic Creating Ever Cool is a must read for all manufacturers and advertising agencies that are marketing to children Bennett Wolk Director Worldwide Consumer Research Mattel Toys By its very nature cool is a nebulous distinction What is cool one year or even one month may not be the next Yet some products are able to remain consistently cool year in and year out In their quest for a share of the 171 billion of purchases that kids influence every year marketers strive to develop such cool products These the author terms Ever Cools The Barbie doll represents a perfect example of an Ever Cool product Barbie rides the trends and fads assuming various guises to reflect current coolness Mothers who had Malibu Barbie dolls now buy Baywatch Barbies for their daughters This is an exploration of achieving the elusive Ever Cool status

Welcoming Children Joyce Ann Mercer, 2005-11-01 This book develops a theology of childhood both from a theoretical basis in biblical theology especially the gospel of Mark and practical experience in children and youth ministry Mercer builds on classical theologians such as Augustine Calvin Barth and Rahner as well as modern feminist theologians such as Brock and Russell She gains insights from pastoral theologians such as Capps and Couture and from contemporary cultural criticism Mercer challenges approaches to educational and liturgical practices with children in congregations that segregate children from the rest of the church and its key practices of service mission worship care and learning She reframes ministries with children as processes through which the church as a community of practice forms children into an alternative identity that resists surrounding consumerist culture and walks in the ways of Jesus This book offers strategies for educational practices with children in congregations as it seeks to address the question What might educational practices that welcome children and contribute to their flourishing look like in the context of a faith community where children s learning happens in collaboration with experienced practitioners of faith Outlining a feminist practical theology of childhood it explores five basic theological claims 1 children as gifts and parenting as a religious practice of stewardship 2 welcoming those who welcome and care for children 3 children as already fully human 4 children as part of the purposes of God and 5 acknowledging and transforming the sufferings of children

Gender, Race, and Class in Media Gail Dines, Jean McMahon Humez, 2011 51 contemporary articles are new to this edition with 14 classic pieces retained from prior editions

International Handbook of Children, Media and Culture Sonia Livingstone, Kirsten Drotner, 2008-03-06 Deliberately selected to represent as many parts of the globe as possible and with a commitment to recognizing both the similarities and differences in children and young people s lives from China to Denmark from Canada to India from Japan to Iceland from the authors offer a rich contextualization of children s engagement with their particular media and communication environment while also pursuing cross cutting themes in terms of comparative and global trends
