T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation, 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation Wolfgang Pannenberg on Human Destiny Dr Kam Ming Wong, 2013-05-28 Based on one of the greatest living theologians Wolfgang Pannenberg this book is the first comprehensive study of human destiny Mapping out the movement of humanity over the course of its history to its common destiny from creation through sin and ethics to eschatology the book also examines the extent to which scholars such as Herder have influenced Pannenberg's work in this important area and shows how Pannenberg's project on ethics is related to human destiny

Creation, Sin and Reconciliation Robert Ignatius Letellier, 2016-02-08 This volume considers aspects of the Book of Genesis as the first book of the Torah and hence of the Bible its position is unique especially in its provision of the foundational stories of Creation the emergence of mankind and the beginning of human society Through close reading of chapters 1 11 32 33 and 37 50 the beginning middle and end of Genesis with consideration of the language style and possible implications of the text this approach explores the fundamental themes of Berishit and the enduring relevance of its powerful message for humanity and our place in the world The method is both synchronic a literary exegetical analysis of the received text and diachronic a more historical consideration of other forms of interpretation whether archaeological theological philosophical generic or comparative The mystery of creation and the origins of the world and humankind are enduringly important and with the rise of interest in cosmology and ever growing ecological concerns for the earth and its sustainability nothing could be more topical Where do we come from What is our place in the world What is our responsibility for it Intimately related to Creation are the nature of human origins and the mystery of the beautiful yet disturbing imperfection of human nature and society Why are we as we are What does this mean for concepts of family community and nation The Patriarchal Narratives of the forebears of Ancient Israel Abraham Isaac Jacob and Joseph provide some of the most enduring stories of election mission endeavour and interaction in the annals of world literature The power and unwavering truthfulness of these stories hold a mirror to human behaviour with seemingly fathomless implications They provide a dynamic a positive way forward in reflecting on the intractable hostility that perennially blights the history of humankind The recurrence of universal themes and symbols generated in Genesis and found throughout the Bible and in wider folk literature emphasizes the conceptual unity of a Great Code of meaning and is pertinent to a canonical reading of Scripture for example Joseph's story prefigures that of Jesus and posits reconciliation as the very harbinger of salvation

Creation and Hope Nicola Hoggard Creegan, Andrew Shepherd, 2018-04-25 We live in an ecological age Science in the last few hundred years has given us a picture of nature as blind to the future and mechanical in its workings even while ecology and physics have made us aware of our interconnectedness and dependency upon the web of life As we witness a possible sixth great mass extinction there is increasing awareness too of the fragility of life on this planet In such a context what is the nature of Christian hope St Paul declares that all of creation will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God How are we to imagine this freedom when death and decay are essential to biological life as we currently experience it and when the scientific predictions for life are bleak at best This book explores these questions reflecting on how our traditions shape our imagination of the future and considering how a theology of hope may sustain Christians engaged in conservation initiatives The essays in this volume are partly in dialogue with the ground breaking work of Celia Deane Drummond and are set in the context of global and local Aotearoa New Zealand ecological challenges

The City of God and the Goal of Creation T. Desmond Alexander, 2018-01-16 For here we have no lasting city but we seek the city that is to come Hebrews 13 14 At the very heart of God's plan for the world stands an extraordinary city Beginning with the garden of Eden in Genesis and ending with the New Jerusalem in Revelation the biblical story reveals how God has been working throughout history to establish a city filled with his glorious presence Tracing the development of the theme of city in both testaments T Desmond Alexander draws on his experience as a biblical scholar to show us God's purpose throughout Scripture to dwell with his redeemed people in a future extraordinary city on a transformed earth Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series

Evil and Creation David Luy, Matthew Levering, George Kalantzis, 2020-12-02 My help comes from the Lord maker of heaven and earth Evil is an intruder upon a world created by God and declared good Scripture emphasizes this laments are regularly juxtaposed with declarations of God as creator But evil is not merely a problem for the doctrine of creation Rather the doctrine of creation provides a hopeful response to evil In Evil and Creation David J Luy Matthew Levering and George Kalantzis collect essays investigating how the doctrine of creation relates to moral and physical evil Essayists pursue philosophical and theological analyses of evil rather than neatly solving the problem of evil itself Including contributions from Constantine Campbell Paul Blowers and Paul Gavrilyuk this volume draws upon biblical and patristic voices to produce constructive theology considering topics ranging from vanity in Ecclesiastes and its patristic interpreters to animal suffering Readers will gain a broader appreciation of evil and how to faithfully respond to it as well as a renewed hope in God as creator and judge

Creation Accounts in the Ancient Near East and in the Bible Richard J. Clifford SJ, 2023-12-07

The New Creation Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2018-08-17 Christianity is essentially a historical religion It cannot be understood merely through a set of dogmas a moral code or a view of the universe Through the stories of Israel Jesus and the developing church Christianity acknowledges the revelation of God in action Augustine the great medieval theologian envisioned human society as composed of two cities distinguished by two loves the love of God and the love of Self He viewed these cities as universal in scope and operative throughout human history This perspective raises questions about the church's nature its role in society and whether the church has lived up to its nature and destiny as God's new creation The New Creation defines the church as the people of God related but not equivalent to Israel or the institutional church This text provides a clear and concise survey of the church as God's instrument for the providential care of the earth and its human family The story of the church begins with Abraham in the second millennium BCE long before Jesus or the birth of Christianity and it proceeds through three epochs 1 Formation c 1850 4 BCE 2 Transformation 4 BCE 1500 CE and 3 Reformation 1500 CE present Ideal for individual or group study The New Creation divides church history into nine units each discussed as a phase in the church's organic growth and development In addition to the narrative each chapter includes three features for that epoch of church history 1 a significant event 2 a turning point or decisive moment and 3 study questions

In Between Two Matthew Lodge, 2021-11-21 It is the last generation of man One is reborn from Zion's sanctuary It will be his last attempt to achieve redemption for humanity and all of Creation A World of realism collides with fantasy as events sounding eerily similar to our current era start to build a fantastic gripping story that will leave you an instant fan

Creation and Christology Masanobu Endo, 2002 Since previous scholarship has searched for figures equivalent to the personified Logos in the Johannine Prologue scholars have often ignored the context of which the Genesis creation account is the center Masanobu Endo examines that reference to the Genesis creation account as it appears in contexts where the unique identity of God is maintained In eschatological contexts the realization of eschatological salvation is strongly expected on the grounds of the sovereignty of God which is known in his work of creation This observation of the theological function of the Genesis creation account in the Second Temple period may shed light on the question of why reference is made to the Genesis creation account in the Johannine prologue What this means is that the descriptions of the identity of the Word the Son in the Johannine prologue were made on the grounds of Jewish monotheistic speculation about the identity of God the Creator
