Dialogue Australian Studies In Art History:

Rethinking Australia's Art History Susan Lowish, 2018-05-30 This book aims to redefine Australia's earliest art history by chronicling for the first time the birth of the category Aboriginal art tracing the term's use through published literature in the late eighteenth nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Susan Lowish reveals how the idea of Aboriginal art developed in the European imagination manifested in early literature and became a distinct classification with its own criteria and form Part of the larger story of Aboriginal European engagement this book provides a new vision for an Australian art history reconciled with its colonial origins and in recognition of what came before the contemporary phenomena of Aboriginal art

Australian Artists in the Contemporary Museum Jennifer Barrett, Jacqueline Millner, 2016-12-05 This unique book proposes a re-reading of the relationship between artists and the contemporary museum In Australia in particular the museum has played a significant role in the colonial project and this has generally been considered as the predominant mode of artists' engagement with such institutions and collections Australian Artists in the Contemporary Museum expands the post-colonial frame of reference used to interpret this work to demonstrate the broader implications of the relationship between artists and the museum and thus to offer an alternative way of understanding recent contemporary practices The authors' central argument is that artists' engagement with the museum has shifted from politically motivated critique taking place in museums of fine art towards interventions taking place in non-art museums that focus on the creation of knowledge more broadly Such interventions assume a number of forms including the artist acting as curator art works that highlight the use of taxonomic modes of display and categorization and the re-consideration of the aesthetics of collections to suggest different ways of interpreting objects and their history Central to these interventions is the challenge to better connect the museum and its public The book will be essential reading for scholars professionals and students in the fields of contemporary art and museum studies art history and in the museum sector These include artists curators museum and gallery professionals postgraduate researchers art historians designers and design scholars art and museum educators and students of visual art art history and museum studies This project has been assisted by the Australian government through the Australia Council for the Arts its arts funding and advisory body

Dialogues in Art History, from Mesopotamian to Modern Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts (U.S.), 2009 Proceedings of the symposium Dialogues in art history organized by the Center for Advanced study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art and sponsored by the Paul Mellon Fund The symposium was held April 21-22 2005 in Washington D.C. APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service, Critical

Dialogues in the Medical Humanities Emma Domínguez-Rué, Konrad Gunesch, 2019-06-21 This volume illustrates ongoing discussions in and about the medical humanities with studies on different approaches to the relationship between medical science and practice and the humanities including reflections based on fiction art history socio-economic and political concerns architecture and natural landscapes The book explores the ways in which healthcare and medical practice can be positively influenced by removing the focus from the technical knowledge of the medical practitioner. It offers innovative perspectives on spaces for healing, traces attitudes and beliefs in relation to illnesses and their treatment throughout history, including intimations of the future and interrogates cultural attitudes to illness, doctoring and patients through the lens of fiction. Based on the premise that more interdisciplinary work between medical and non-medical professionals is needed, the chapters contained in this volume contribute to an ongoing dialogue between medicine and the humanities that continues to enrich both disciplines.

Social Theory and Asian Dialogues Ananta Kumar Giri, 2018-03-30. Critically exploring the presuppositions of contemporary social theory, this collection argues for a trans-civilizational dialogue and a deepening of the universe of intellectual discourse in order to transform sociology into a truly planetary conversation on the human condition. Focusing on perspectives from Asia, notably East Asia and India, it interrogates presuppositions in contemporary critical social theory about man, culture and society and considers central themes such as knowledge and power, knowledge and liberation. The diverse contributions tackle key questions such as the globalization of social theory, identity and society in East Asia as well as issues such as biopolitics, social welfare and eurocentrism. They also examine dialogues along multiple trajectories between social theorists from the Euro-American world and from the Asian universe such as between Kant and Gandhi, Habermas and Sri Aurobindo, the Bildung tradition in Europe and the Confucian traditions. Arguing for a global comparative engagement and cross-cultural dialogue, this is a key read for all those interested in the future of social theory in the wake of globalization and the rise of the global south.

The Trans/National Study of Culture Doris Bachmann-Medick, 2014-08-22. This volume introduces key concepts for a trans-national expansion in the study of culture. Using translation as an analytical category, it explores what is translatable and untranslatable between nation-specific approaches such as British American cultural studies, German Kulturwissenschaften and other traditions in studying culture. The range of articles included in the book covers both theoretical reflections and specific case studies that analyze the tensions and compatibilities amongst contemporary perspectives on the study of culture. By testing various key concepts, translation, cultural transfer, travelling concepts, this volume reflects on an essential vocabulary and common points of reference for scholars seeking new frameworks and methodologies for the foundation of a trans-national study of culture that is commensurate with the entangled nature of our world society.

The Australian Art Field Tony Bennett, Deborah Stevenson, Fred Myers, Tamara Winikoff, 2020-05-25. This book brings together leading scholars and practitioners to take stock of the frictions generated by a tumultuous time in the Australian art field and to probe what the crises might mean for the future of the arts in Australia. Specific topics include national and international art markets, art practices in their broader social and political contexts, social relations and institutions and their role in contemporary Australian art, the policy regimes and funding programmes of Australian governments and national and international art markets. In addition, the collection will pay detailed attention to the field of indigenous art and the work of Indigenous artists. This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art.

history cultural studies and Indigenous peoples Dialogues Between Artistic Research and Science and Technology Studies Henk Borgdorff, Peter Peters, Trevor Pinch, 2019-10-29 This edited volume maps dialogues between science and technology studies research on the arts and the emerging field of artistic research The main themes in the book are an advanced understanding of discursivity and reasoning in arts based research the methodological relevance of material practices and things and innovative ways of connecting staging and publishing research in art and academia This book touches on topics including studies of artistic practices reflexive practitioners at the boundaries between the arts science and technology non propositional forms of reasoning unconventional arts based research methods and enhanced modes of presentation and publication Worlding the south Sarah Comyn, Porscha Fermanis, 2021-07-06 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This collection brings together for the first time literary studies of British colonies in nineteenth century Australia New Zealand South Africa South America Southeast Asia and the South Pacific Islands Drawing on hemispheric studies Indigenous studies and southern theory to decentre British and other European metropolises the collection offers a groundbreaking challenge to national paradigms and traditional literary periodisations and canons by prioritising southern cultural networks in multiple regional centres from Cape Town to Dunedin Worlding the south examines the dialectics of literary worldedness in ways that recognise inequalities of power textual and material violence and literary and cultural resistance The collection revises current literary histories of the British world by arguing for the distinctiveness of settler colonialism in the southern hemisphere and by incorporating Indigenous diasporic and south south perspectives
