Diamond Sutra And The Sutra Of Hui Neng Shambhala Classics:

The Diamond Sutra and The Sutra of Hui-neng ,2005-11-08 Two classic Zen Buddhist texts that present the foundational teachings of the tradition now collected in one volume for the modern practitioner The Diamond Sutra composed in India in the fourth century CE is one of the most treasured works of Buddhist literature and is the oldest existing printed book in the world It is known as the Diamond Sutra because its teachings are said to be like diamonds that cut away all dualistic thought releasing one from the attachment to objects and bringing one to the further shore of enlightenment The format of this important sutra is presented as a conversation between the Buddha and one of his disciples The Sutra of Hui neng also known as the Platform Sutra contains the autobiography of a pivotal figure in Zen history and some of the most profound passages of Zen literature Hui neng 638 713 was the sixth patriarch of Zen in China but is often regarded as the true father of the Zen tradition He was a poor illiterate woodcutter who is said to have attained enlightenment upon hearing a recitation of the Diamond Sutra Together these two scriptures present the central teaching of the Zen Buddhist tradition and are essential reading for all students of Buddhism The Sutra of Hui-neng, Grand Master of Zen Thomas Cleary,1998-09-14 Hui neng 638 713 is perhaps the most beloved and respected figure in Zen Buddhism An illiterate woodcutter who attained enlightenment in a flash he became the Sixth Patriarch of Chinese Zen and is regarded as the founder of the Sudden Enlightenment school He is the supreme exemplar of the fact that neither education nor social background has any bearing on the attainment of enlightenment This collection of his talks also known as the Platform or Altar Sutra is the only Zen record of its kind to be generally honored with the appellation sutra or scripture The Sutra of Hui neng is here accompanied by Hui neng's verse by verse commentary on the Diamond Sutra in its very first published English translation ever Jizi and His Art in Contemporary China David Adam Brubaker,Chunchen Wang,2015-02-12 This interdisciplinary study promotes the thesis that some contemporary Chinese ink artists succeed in using principles of traditional Chinese aesthetics to convey the union of self with nature others and the universe The investigation is a case study of the writings and paintings of Jizi an ink wash artist in Beijing who combines images of icy mountains Tibetan landscapes cosmic vistas and enclosures of personal existence Jizi's success in expressing the unification of these dimensions is confirmed by developing and applying an interpretation of Jing Hao's classic description of the authentic image which resonates with the vitality of nature To find words for resonance with visible nature the inquiry extends to such writers as Li Zehou Arthur Danto and Maurice Merleau Ponty In short an account of authenticity in Chinese ink painting is offered experimentally as a means for assessing whether contemporary Chinese artworks are expressive of Chinese philosophy and culture The text includes stylistic comparisons with artists such as E C Escher Guo Xi Jia Youfu Liu Guosong Rene Magritte Piet Mondrian and Xu Bing The result is an appreciation of the healing influence of Chinese ink art in a global culture that is vibrant complex diverse and affirming of the present In this rigorous far reaching and original analysis of contemporary ink art painting Brubaker and Wang focus our attention on the work of one independent painter Jizi whose work exemplifies an uncanny marriage between ink art and contemporary concerns In the central chapters Brubaker persuasively argues that in this work Jizi captures principles essential to traditional Chinese aesthetics articulated in terms of wholeness emptiness and visibility that enable the works to express the unification of the self with nature and the universe as a whole It does this through forms that are innovative and part of artistic practices and discourses that are becoming increasingly global Mary Wiseman The City University of New York This important publication focuses on the evocative ink wash paintings of an artist who has over the course of decades demonstrated an unwavering commitment to exploring the technical formal philosophical and experiential dimensions of his chosen medium The essays commentaries and critical reflections collected in this volume present unique perspectives on Jizi s practice significantly contributing to the growing body of scholarship on the continuing vitality of the ink wash tradition in the global contemporary Dr Wenny Teo The Courtauld Institute of Art Through an in depth study of the ink painting practice of contemporary Chinese artist Jizi the authors discover Chinese ink painting s philosophical perspectives cosmic foundations and contemporary possibilities They also uncovered a way to enter into the artist s rich and profound spiritual world through Jiazi s expansive visual patterning and refined spiritual imagery he activates a long and great cultural tradition Yu Yang Central Academy of Fine Arts Self, Attitudes, and Emotion Work Christopher Bradley, 2017-09-08 This book is about how Western social psychology interfaces with an Eastern Zen Buddhist perspective It is neither a purely Zen Buddhist critique of the former nor is it merely a social psychological interpretation of Zen Rather it is an attempt to create common ground between each through the systematic comparison of certain shared fundamental concepts and ideas Anglo American social psychology is not much more than a century old despite having its roots in a broad philosophical tradition Alternately the Zen version of Buddhism can trace its historical origins to roughly 1 500 years ago in China Even though the two arose at different times and at first glance appear stridently antithetical the authors show that they share considerable areas of overlap The logic of Zen contemplates the consequences of the taken for granted tyranny created by personal memories and culture These traits common to every culture include hubris greed self centeredness distrust prejudice hatred fear anxiety and violence Social psychology leans more toward a nurture rather than nature explanation for behavior Both areas of research are firmly rooted within the domain of sociological social psychology the processes are also sometimes referred to as learning or conditioning Zen challenges in radical terms key assumptions of both sociology and psychology concerning individual identity human nature and human motivation This stimulating volume will provoke new thoughts about an old tradition and a newer area of scholarly work Dogen's Pure Standards for the Zen Community D?gen, 1996-01-01 Presents a complete annotated translation of Dogen s writing on Zen monasticism and the spirit of community practice Dogen 1200 1253 is Japan s greatest Zen master For the Benefit of All Beings Dalai Lama, 2009-04-21 The Dalai Lama explains how to follow the spiritual

Buddhism, Virtue and Environment David E. Cooper, Simon P. James, 2017-07-05 Buddhism one increasingly hears is an eco friendly religion It is often said that this is because it promotes an ecological view of things one stressing the essential unity of human beings and the natural world Buddhism Virtue and Environment presents a different view While agreeing that Buddhism is in many important respects in tune with environmental concerns Cooper and James argue that what makes it green is its view of human life The true connection between the religion and environmental thought is to be found in Buddhist accounts of the virtues those traits such as compassion equanimity and humility that characterise the life of a spiritually enlightened individual Central chapters of this book examine these virtues and their implications for environmental attitudes and practice Buddhism Virtue and Environment will be of interest not only to students and teachers of Buddhism and environmental ethics but to those more generally engaged with moral philosophy Written in a clear and accessible style this book presents an original conception of Buddhist environmental thought The authors also contribute to the wider debate on the place of ethics in Buddhist teachings and practices and to debates within virtue ethics on the relations between human well being and environmental concern
