Understanding Startups From Idea to Market Yenchun Jim Wu, Chih-Hung Yuan, Mu-Yen Chen, 2022-04-08 Handbook of Research on

Entrepreneurship in Professional Services Markus Reihlen, Andreas Werr, 2012-01-01 Professional service firms are critical agents of contemporary economies and understanding them has become a central focus of recent scholarship This very timely and well organized Handbook brings together several leading scholars who explore how we might think and theorize about professional service firms and their entrepreneurial behaviours The Handbook will become a key source for the growing community of researchers in this area Royston Greenwood University of Alberta Canada For too long both researchers and practitioners have presumed that professional service firms follow the status quo when they should better understand how these professionals set the rules for globalization This Handbook reminds us that professionals are as much the shock troops of capitalism as the multinational corporations that they serve As this Handbook shows the leading firms successfully compete with each other by fostering entrepreneurship and innovation in order to service an institutional system that undergirds the international economy Christopher McKenna University of Oxford UK Professional services are increasingly seen as an important foundation for future economic growth and prosperity Yet research on innovative and entrepreneurial processes in professional services has been surprisingly scarce This Handbook provides a collection of original contributions from leading scholars outlining the current stock of knowledge in the area as well as providing directions for further research The expert contributors discuss entrepreneurship and innovation from a number of different perspectives including the entrepreneurial professional team the entrepreneurial firm and the institutional environment The first part of the book looks at the challenges of entrepreneurship specific to the professional service firm while the second explores the creation and exploitation of entrepreneurial opportunities in the professional service team Part III turns to the organization and Part IV to the management and growth of the entrepreneurial professional service firm The final part discusses the interplay between professions firms and the institutional environment Researchers scholars and PhD students in the areas of entrepreneurship and professional service firms along with advanced students of management will find this volume of great value Data-Driven Decision Making in Entrepreneurship Nikki Blacksmith, Maureen E.

McCusker, 2024-04-02 Since the beginning of the 21st century there has been an explosion in startup organizations Together these organizations have been valued at over 3 trillion In 2019 alone nearly 300 billion of venture capital was invested globally Global Startup Ecosystem Report 2020 Simultaneously an explosion in high volume and high velocity of big data is rapidly changing how organizations function Gone are the days when organizations can make decisions solely on intuition logic or experience Some have gone as far as to say that data is the most valuable currency and resource available to businesses and startups are no exception However startups do differ from their larger counterparts and corporations in three distinct ways 1 they tend to have fewer resources time and specialized training to devote to data analytics 2 they are part of a unique entrepreneurial ecosystem with unique needs 3 scholarship and academic research on human capital data analytics in startups is lacking Existing entrepreneurship research is primarily conducted in business schools There needs to be more integration of industrial organizational psychology and entrepreneurship This book was designed to do just that to demonstrate how organizational psychology with a focus on human capital data and analytics can advance the science and practice of entrepreneurship This book is purposefully designed to address the unique idiosyncrasies of the science research and practice of startups and the entrepreneurial ecosystem Each chapter takes a science practice perspective highlighting a specific human capital management topic e g learning and development team effectiveness human capital due diligence and discusses how leveraging data can help enhance decision making The volume is grounded in sound theory and practice of organizational psychology entrepreneurship and management It is divided into three parts 1 human capital assessment and development for startups 2 understanding startup situations environments and support systems and 3 measuring startup level performance The Handbook of Research on Energy Entrepreneurship Rolf W _stenhagen, Robert
