Creation And Transformation Defining Moments In Inuit Art:

Creation and Transformation Darlene Wight, Susan Joan Gustavison, Winnipeg Art Gallery, Norman David Vorano, Christine Lalonde, 2013 The treasures of the world's largest public collection of Inuit art are revealed in this seminal history of art from the Arctic The collection of Inuit art held by the Winnipeg Art Gallery one of Canada's most important public galleries is extraordinary by any standard its geographic range diverse media and size have brought international renown to the collection of some 11 000 artworks The wag celebrates its 100th anniversary in 2012 13 and this book as well as a major exhibition from January 24 to April 17 2013 will feature many of the gallery's treasures as it marks this important milestone Creation and Transformation is a major art book that describes the genesis and evolution of contemporary Inuit art from 1949 to the present day from carvers in the 1950s such as Johnny Inukpuk to later storytellers in stone such as Davidialuk Alasua Amittu and in whale bone such as Karoo Ashevak from pioneer graphic artist Jessie Oonark to graphic artists working today in new and personal idioms such as Shuvina Ashoona The book is a celebration of creativity that has had many transformations over six decades Organized chronologically this remarkable volume will constitute a new historical narrative of a contemporary art form as revealed in essays by international authorities led by Winnipeg Art Gallery's curator of Inuit art Darlene Coward Wight and explored through the personal insights of the artists themselves Expertly designed and produced this book features 150 colour and archival images

Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo, Ruth Bliss Phillips, 2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith Will Wilson and many more Authors Berlo and Phillips incorporate new research and scholarship examining such issues as art and ethics gender representation and the colonial encounter By bringing into one conversation the seemingly separate realms of the sacred and the secular the political and the domestic and the ceremonial and the commercial Native North American Art shows how visual arts not only maintain the integrity of spiritual and social systems within Native North American societies but have long been part of a cross cultural experience as well
