Previous surveys of the gay theatrical repertoire have concentrated on plays produced on Broadway or in London's West End. This comprehensive guide goes well beyond these earlier studies by introducing productions from Off Broadway from regional theaters in the U S and U K and from Ireland Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa. Also included are Puerto Rican Indian and Filipino plays written in English as well as translations from other languages. Well over half of the works discussed here appear for the first time in such a study.

Tolstoy's False Disciple Alexandra Popoff, 2014-11-15 On the snowy morning of February 8 1897 the Petersburg secret police were following Tolstoy's every move and he was always in the company of a man named Chertkov. At sixty nine Russia's most celebrated writer was being treated like a major criminal and had abandoned his literary pursuits and become a spiritual mystic angering the Orthodox church and earning both the admiration and ire of his countrymen. Tolstoy was recognizable enough with his peasant garb and beard but who was the man who towered over Tolstoy twenty years younger with a cold impenetrable look on his face. This man Chertkov was a relative to the Tsars and nephew to the chief of the secret police and represented the very things Tolstoy had renounced: class privilege unlimited power and wealth and yet Chertkov fascinated and attracted Tolstoy. He would become the writer's closest confidant reading even his diary and at the end of Tolstoy's life Chertkov had him in his complete control preventing him from even seeing his own wife on his deathbed.

The Nearness of You Amanda Eyre Ward, 2017-02-21 In this profound and lyrical novel acclaimed author Amanda Eyre Ward explores the deeper meanings of motherhood from the first blissful hello to the heart wrenching prospect of saying goodbye. Brilliant heart surgeon Suzette Kendall is stunned when Hyland her husband of fifteen years admits his yearning for a child. From the beginning they'd decided that having children was not an option as Suzette feared passing along the genes that landed her mother in a mental institution. But Hyland proposes a different idea: a baby via surrogate. Suzette agrees and what follows is a whirlwind of candidate selection hospital visits and Suzette's doubts over whether she's made the right decision. A young woman named Dorothy Muscarello is chosen as the one who will help make this family complete. For Dorrie surrogacy and the money that comes with it are her opportunity to leave behind a troubled past and create a future for herself: one full of possibility. But this situation also forces all three of them Dorrie Suzette and Hyland to face a devastating uncertainty that will reverberate in the years to come.
