Centuries Ana Benavides, 2025-07-30 This is a pioneering work on the study of popular music songs and dances from the eighteenth to early twentieth centuries The piano was the dominant solo instrument in European art music of this period including Spanish and Ana Benavides uses this as a vehicle for examining a wide variety of vernacular songs and dances offering a wealth of musical historical and ethnographic insight First published in Spanish in 2019 this translation by Walter Aaron Clark shows how one of the most frequent and established practices in the history of Western art music has been the borrowing and reinterpretation of traditional and popular musics which reflect the lives and spirit of those outside the upper social strata This volume provides an exploration of specific folk inspired works with an inquiry into the historical cross pollination between popular and classical musical idioms It will prove invaluable not only to pianists but also to scholars performers and students in general A History of the Romantic Movement in Spain , Classical Rhetoric and Its

Music in Spain During the Eighteenth Century Malcolm Boyd, Juan José Carreras López, 1998-11-26 Traditional musicology has tended to see the Spanish eighteenth century as a period of decline but this 1998 volume shows it to be rich in interest and achievement Covering stage genres orchestral and instrumental music and vocal music both sacred and secular it brings together the results of research on such topics as opera musical instruments the secular cantata and the villancico and challenges received ideas about how Italian and Austrian music of the period influenced or was opposed by Spanish composers and theorists Two final chapters outline the presence of Spanish musical sources in the New World

Portraying the Prince in the Renaissance Patrick Baker, Ronny Kaiser, Maike Priesterjahn, Johannes Helmrath, 2016-06-20 The portrayal of princes plays a central role in the historical literature of the European Renaissance The sixteen contributions collected in this volume examine such portrayals in a broad variety of historiographical biographical and poetic texts It emerges clearly that historical portrayals were not essentially bound by generic constraints but instead took the form of res gestae or historiae discrete or collective biographies panegyric mirrors for princes epic poetry orations even commonplace books whatever the occasion called for Beyond questions of genre the chapters focus on narrative strategies and the transformation of ancient medieval and contemporary authors as well as on the influence of political cultural intellectual and social contexts Four broad thematic foci inform the structure of this book the virtues ascribed to the prince the cultural and political pretensions inscribed in literary portraits the historical and literary models on which these portraits were based and the method that underlay them The volume is rounded out by a critical summary that considers the portrayal of princes in humanist historiography from the point of view of transformation theory

Rhetoric and Reality in Early Modern Spain Richard Pym, 2006 Early modern Spain's insistent rhetorics of nation and kingship of a monolithic body of shared values and beliefs especially in respect of racial and gender stereotypes and of a centralized and ostensibly absolutist legislative apparatus did not map unproblematically onto the complex topography of everyday life This volume explores the extent to which these rhetorics and the ideology they helped to construct or underpin reflected or failed to reflect the realities of social economic and cultural life It sets against their typically exorbitant claims the lived messy and sometimes contradictory experience of Spaniards across a broad social spectrum both at the centre and at the margins not just of peninsular society but of the Hispanic world overseas Confronting ideology were questions of economic pragmatism executive feasibility jurisdictional competence and above all the social and political complexity of the Spain of the period Contributors TREVOR J DADSON MARGARET RICH GREER BARRY IFE ALISTAIR MALCOLM MELVEENA MCKENDRICK RICHARD J PYM HELEN RAWLINGS ALEXANDER SAMSON JULES WHICKER RICHARD J PYM is Senior Lecturer in Hispanic Studies at Royal Holloway University of London
