

ROSA PARKS

Rosa Parks, born on February 4, 1915, in Tuskegee, Alabama, is widely recognized as a symbol of courage and resistance in the face of racial injustice. Her steadfast refusal to give up her seat on a bus in Montgomery, Alabama, on December 1, 1955, became a pivotal moment in the Civil Rights Movement.

Rosa Parks grew up during a time when segregation between African Americans and whites was deeply ingrained in society. Despite facing discrimination and unequal treatment, she became an active member of the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and dedicated herself to the fight against racial injustice.

The incident that brought Rosa Parks to the forefront of the Civil Rights Movement occurred when she boarded a bus after a long day of work. On those days, racial segregation on buses was enforced, with African Americans required to sit in the back of the bus. When the bus became crowded and the driver demanded that Rosa Parks give up her seat to a white passenger, she courageously refused.

Rosa Parks' act of defiance led to her arrest, sparking a wave of protests and boycotts organized by leaders such as Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. The Montgomery Bus Boycott, as it came to be known, lasted for 381 days, during which African Americans in Montgomery refused to use the city's bus services. The boycott brought attention to the unfair treatment of African Americans and ultimately led to a Supreme Court ruling declaring segregation on public buses unconstitutional.
