Care Migration And Human Rights Care Migration And Human Rights:

Care, Migration and Human Rights Siobhán Mullally, 2015-02-11 The continuum of exploitation that has historically defined the everyday of domestic work exclusion from employment and social security standards and precarious migration status has frequently been neglected It is primarily the moments of crisis incidents of human trafficking slavery or forced labour that have captured the attention of human rights law Only recently has human rights law begun to address the structured inequalities and exclusions that define the domain of domestic work This book addresses the specific position of domestic workers in the context of evolving human rights norms Drawing upon a broad range of case studies this book presents a thorough examination of key issues such as the commodification of care the impact of the jurisprudence of the Court of Justice of the European Union and the European Court of Human Rights on primary care providers as well as the effect that trends in migration law have on migrant domestic workers This volume will be of interest to lawyers academics and policy makers in the fields of human rights migration and gender studies Migration and Care Labour B. Anderson, I. Shutes, 2014-03-18 The provision of care has been widely referred to as facing a crisis International migrants are increasingly relied upon to provide care as domestic workers nannies care assistants and nurses This international volume examines the global construction of migrant care labour and how it manifests itself in different contexts Economic Migrants in International Law and Policy. Selected Issues and Challenges Bogumil Terminski, 2018 In recent years international labour migrations and its social consequences have become one of the key issues on the international agenda Changing image of the economic mobility strongly affected domestic policies activities of international organizations and international law The growing dynamic of economic migration and the transformation of this process becoming a source of challenges for the various areas of international law including international labour law international humanitarian law and international human rights law The book discusses the most important documents concerning regulation of migration and international protection of migrant workers The author devotes attention to the practical activities of all intergovernmental organizations UN ILO UNHCR EU COE OSCE OAS dealing with the issue of international migration A significant part of the book is focused on the legal context of currently observed problems such as undocumented migration human trafficking socio economic rights of migrants deportation employment of migrants access to health care institutions the issue of asylum and the rights of specific categories of economic migrants Considerations presented in this book are based on in depth analysis of more than hundred international treaties and documents focused on international migrations The book presents the most important international initiatives concerning protection of economic migrants between 1919 and 2018 Migration and Health Sandro Galea, Catherine K. Ettman, Muhammad H. Zaman, 2022-11-25 A new introduction to a timeless dynamic how the movement of humans affects health everywhere International migrants compose more than three percent of the world's population and internal migrants those migrating within countries are more than triple that number Population migration has long been and remains today one of the central demographic shifts shaping the world around us The world's history and its health is shaped and colored by stories of migration patterns the policies and political events that drive these movements and narratives of individual migrants Migration and Health offers the most expansive framework to date for understanding and reckoning with human migration's implications for public health and its determinants It interrogates this complex relationship by considering not only the welfare of migrants but also that of the source destination and ensuing generation populations The result is an elevated interdisciplinary resource for understanding what is known and the considerable territory of what is not known at an intersection that promises to grow in importance and influence as the century unfolds

Beyond Law and Development Sam Adelman, Abdul Paliwala, 2022-04-27 The book highlights new imaginaries required to transcend traditional approaches to law and development The authors focus on injustices and harms to people and the environment and confront global injustices involving impoverishment patriarchy forced migration global pandemics and intellectual rights in traditional medicine resulting from maldevelopment bad governance and aftermaths of colonialism New imaginaries emphasise deconstruction of fashionable myths of law development human rights governance and post coloniality to focus on communal and feminist relationality non western legal systems personal responsibility for justice and forms of resistance to injustices The book will be of interest to students and scholars of development law and development feminism international law environmental law governance politics international relations social justice and activism

Irregular Migrants and the Right to Health Stefano Angeleri, 2022-08-04 Analyses how human rights law can overcome constraining approaches to the right to health of irregular migrants

When Care Work Goes Global Mary Romero, Valerie Preston, Wenona Giles, 2016-02-11 Women who migrate into domestic labour and care work are the single largest female occupational group migrating globally at present Their participation in global migration systems has been acknowledged but remains under theorized Specifically the impacts of women migrating into care work in the receiving as well as the sending societies are profound altering gendered aspects of both societies We know that migration systems link the women who migrate and the households and organizations that employ domestic and care workers but how do these migration systems work and more importantly what are their impacts on the sending as well as the receiving societies How do sending and receiving societies regulate women's migration for care work and how do these labour market exchanges take place How is reproductive labour changed in the receiving society when it is done by women who are subject to multifaceted othering racializing processes A must buy acquisition When Care Work Goes Global will be an extremely valuable addition for course adoption in migration labour and gender courses taught in Sociology Anthropology Geography Women's Studies Area Studies and International Development Studies
