Better Learning Through Structured Teaching: A Framework for the Gradual Release of Responsibility Doug Fisher, Nancy Frey, 2010-09-10 Better Learning Through Structured Teaching describes how teachers can help students develop stronger learning skills by ensuring that instruction moves from modeling and guided practice situations where the teacher has most of the responsibility to collaborative learning and finally to independent tasks You ll find out how to use the four components of this approach to help meet critical challenges including differentiating instruction and making effective use of class time

- 1 Focus Lessons Establishing the lesson s purpose and then modeling your own thinking for students
- 2 Guided Instruction Working with small groups of students who have similar results on performance assessments
- 3 Collaborative Learning Enabling students to discuss and negotiate with one another to create independent work not simply one project
- 4 Independent Tasks Requiring students to use their previous knowledge to create new and authentic products

The authors explore each component using student dialogues and examples from a variety of disciplines and grade levels They provide tips and tools for successfully implementing this instructional approach in your own classroom including checklists for classroom setup and routines critical questions real world lesson plans and more No matter what grade level you teach Better Learning Through Structured Teaching is your essential guide to helping students develop and expand their capacity for authentic and long lasting learning

The School Leader's Guide to English Learners Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, 2012-02-02 English learners face not only the challenge of learning English but also learning in English How then do you set reasonable expectations for developing proficiency School leaders will find the answers inside including how to assess the individual needs of ELs how to create a quality instructional program and how to evaluate performance Each chapter offers reliable research based ways to implement solutions you can count on Better Learning Through Structured Teaching Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, 2021-07-23 Now in its 3rd edition Better Learning Through Structured Teaching is the definitive guide to the gradual release of responsibility an instructional framework any teacher can use to help students to be more successful and self directed learners To gradually release responsibility is to equip students with what they need to master content and develop new competencies On a day to day basis it means delivering lessons intentionally structured to incorporate four interrelated phases

- Focused Instruction I do it that sets students up for cognitive apprenticeship by establishing lesson purpose modeling strategies and skills and sharing information and insight
- Guided Instruction We do it together that incorporates targeted prompts cues and questions to scaffold understanding
- Collaborative Learning You do it together that allows students to consolidate and extend understanding through accountable group tasks built on discussion and cooperative problem solving
- Independent Learning You do it alone that provides students opportunities to practice and apply the skills and knowledge they ve acquired to create authentic products and ask new questions

Authors Douglas Fisher and Nancy Frey detail the components of each phase sharing proven strategies and real life examples You ll find a variety of useful tips for classroom implementation along with new guidance on teacher credibility social emotional learning and embedding assessment throughout all four phases No matter what grade level or subject you teach Better Learning Through Structured Teaching is an essential resource for improving your practice and empowering your students Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts, Volume II James Flood, Shirley Brice Heath, Diane Lapp, 2015-04-22 The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young A project of the International Reading Association published and distributed by Routledge Taylor Francis Visit <http://www.reading.org> for more information about International Reading Association books membership and other services
