Growing Business in Delaware William W. Boyer, Edward C. Ratledge, 2015-12-09 In this fourth book by the authors about public affairs in Delaware, the state's strategies to maintain a business-friendly environment are examined, especially by awarding grants and loans to grow businesses and jobs. The book addresses the nation's 2008-2014 Great Recession that was very severe in Delaware. Among the large Delaware employers that disappeared were Chrysler, General Motors and Avon. Meanwhile, DuPont cut many jobs while MBNA's sale to Bank of America also caused many job losses. This small state's efforts to deal with this overwhelming crisis are analyzed. Accordingly, the book is timely regarding politics and policy choices involving jobs, competition with other states and a host of other problems. Among the features analyzed are the state's transition from a passive to a proactive management approach, in-depth analyses of certain prominent companies awarded state funding to create jobs as well as a broader spectrum of firms receiving similar kinds of subsidies to create or retain employment along with the permeation of politics involving variously the media, political parties, special interests, government, business leaders, citizen groups. The authors conclude what lessons they have learned from their study.

Marx's 'Grundrisse' and Hegel's 'Logic' (RLE Marxism) Hiroshi Uchida, 2015-04-17 Marx's Grundrisse is acknowledged as the vital link between Marx's early and late work It is also a crucial text in elucidating Marx's debt to the idealist philosopher G W F Hegel This book first published in 1988 is the first full length study of that relationship in a thorough textual analysis which makes the connections explicit and also the Grundrisse's relations to the works of Adam Smith and Aristotle This book argues that Marx's critique of political economy and his critique of Hegel are double interrelated Not only did Marx adapt Hegelian logic in order to analyse the economic categories crucial to modern society but it is argued that those logical categories were themselves seen as reflections of the productive processes of contemporary commercial society Uchida reveals a conceptual structure common to the apparently rarefied world of Hegelian conceptual logic and to the supposedly common sensical world of economic science Demonstrating this is a considerable achievement and it allows us to consider precisely what is valuable today in Marx's critical commentary on this conceptual structure and on the type of society in which it is manifested Uchida's subject like Marx's is the force of capital on modern life
