Capitalism And The Transformation Of Africa:

Capitalism and the Transformation of Africa Mary-Alice Waters, Martín Koppel, 2014-02-09 In the decades of wars economic crises and explosive class battles that lie ahead the weight of the toilers of Africa in shaping the future will be greater than ever before Reporting from Equatorial Guinea in central Africa the authors focus on the social transformations unfolding as revenues from offshore oil extraction are used to build infrastructure on which rising labor productivity industry and progress depend Pulled into the world market as never before both a capitalist class and a working class are being born Includes firsthand accounts of the work of Cuban medical brigades in Equatorial Guinea now extending to Sierra Leone Liberia and Guinea Conakry as hundreds of Cuban volunteer medics combat the Ebola epidemic Here we see the living example of the Cuban Revolution exemplified by the international solidarity of workers and farmers who took political power into their own hands five decades ago Woven together these seemingly disparate threads the beginning transformation of production and class relations in Equatorial Guinea and the proletarian course of the Cuban Revolution show a future to be fought for today Reliable basic information about contemporary Equatorial Guinea information that would be of much value to any reader who is not familiar with the country African Studies Quarterly Includes photos maps and index Capitalism and the Transformation of Africa Mary-Alice Waters, Martín Koppel, 2020 Transforming Capitalism and Patriarchy April A. Gordon, 1996 Gordon analyzes the interplay between capitalism development and the status of African women Drawing on the work of both African and Western researchers she shows that capitalist development projects have mainly benefited a small stratum of African elites and proposes concrete strategies for making it more equitable for women

Africapitalism Uwafiokun Idemudia, Kenneth Amaeshi, 2019-04-01 Using theory empirical research and case studies this book explores the changing nature of business in Africa and how businesses can actively contribute to the development of Africa It uses and critically analyses the concept of Africapitalism a management philosophy and movement which seeks to blend the best of African values and Western management theories as a basis for sustainable development in Africa to understand the subtle factors that underpin business decisions in Africa The collection of chapters in this book are organized around actors issues and reflections They collectively present an account of Africapitalism albeit from different perspectives and on different issues and open up a new space for rethinking business and society relations in Africa from an Africapitalism perspective Crucial is the critical engagement with both the discourse and practice of Africapitalism and its implications for sustainable development It is anticipated that the challenges and opportunities highlighted by the book would be embraced by researchers policy makers and practitioners in the broad area of business and society in Africa This multidisciplinary book will be valuable reading for advanced students researchers and policymakers looking at business in society corporate social responsibility sustainable business international business and African development African Political and Economic Philosophy with Africapitalism Ephraim-Stephen Essien, Frank Aragbonfoh Abumere, 2024-03-06 This book creates on the one hand and explores on the other hand philosophies of African development suitable for Black sub Saharan African countries As an academic discipline focused on thought informed by indigenous moral values among Black peoples in the sub Saharan region African political philosophy involves philosophizing normatively about government by traditional Black African people with the aim of advancing a better African society African political philosophy does not mean that its themes views concepts and approaches are exclusively African It also does not mean that only thinkers in Africa could hold these concepts nor does it mean that all African thinkers hold the same views African is used geographically in African political philosophy to demarcate certain perspectives that are unique to sub Saharan African thought and practice that tend not to be the case elsewhere An African political and economic philosophy should address the origin and method of political power the guarantee of human and civil liberties and how economic goods are generated and distributed in African societies Africapitalism as a new economic philosophy obviates the inadequacies in Afrisocialism and offers an option for an African economic philosophy Edited by Ephraim Stephen Essien and Frank Aragbonfoh Abumere the contributors to African Political and Economic Philosophy with Africapitalism Concepts for African Leadership ask the question can a neo Afrisocialism offer anything good for the Africa The Oxford Handbook of Africa and Economics Célestin Monga, Justin Yifu Lin, 2015-07-02 For a long time economic research on Africa was not seen as a profitable venture intellectually or professionally few researchers in top ranked institutions around the world chose to become experts in the field This was understandable the reputation of Africa centered economic research was not enhanced by the well known limitations of economic data across the continent Moreover development economics itself was not always fashionable and the broader discipline of economics has had its ups and downs and has been undergoing a major identity crisis because it failed to predict the Great Recession Times have changed many leading researchers including a few Nobel laureates have taken the subject of Africa and economics seriously enough to devote their expertise and creativity to it They have been amply rewarded the richness complexities and subtleties of African societies civilizations rationalities and ways of living have helped renew the humanities and the social sciences and economics in particular to the point that the continent has become the next major intellectual frontier to researchers from around the world In collecting some of the most authoritative statements about the science of economics and its concepts in the African context this handbook the first of two volumes opens up the diverse acuity of commentary on exciting topics and in the process challenges and stimulates the quest for knowledge Wide ranging in its scope themes language and approaches this volume explores examines and assesses economic thinking on Africa and Africa s contribution to the discipline The editors bring a set of powerful resources to this endeavor most notably a team of internationally renowned economists whose diverse viewpoints are complemented by the perspectives of philosophers political scientists and anthropologists The Palgrave Handbook of African Political Economy Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2020-06-23 This handbook constitutes a specialist single compendium that analyses African political economy in its theoretical historical and policy dimensions It emphasizes the uniqueness of African political economy within a global capitalist system that is ever changing and complex Chapters in the book discuss how domestic and international political economic forces have shaped and continue to shape development outcomes on the continent Contributors also provoke new thinking on theories and policies to better position the continent s economy to be a critical global force The uniqueness of the handbook lies in linking theory and praxis with the past future and various dimensions of the political economy of Africa

Emergence of Africa in International Politics Taufiq Ahmad Nizami,1993 Contributed articles Capitalism's Crises Vishwas Satgar,2015-10-01 The contributors to this volume draw on a non dogmatic Marxist approach to explain the systemic and conjunctural dynamics of crisis inherent in global capitalism Their analysis asks what is historically specific to capitalism s crises while avoiding catastrophic or defeatist claims At the same time the volume situates left agency within actual patterns of resistance and class struggle to clarify the potential for transformative change The cycle of resistance strengthened by the World Social Forum and transnational activism is now punctuated by the experience of the Arab Spring the agency of anti systemic movements left think tanks the Occupy Wall Street Movement labour unions left parties in Europe such as Syriza and Podemos and peoples budgeting in Kerala India On the down side we are witnessing the waning of the Workers Party in Brazil and serious challenges for South Africa s once powerful labour movement and still formative social justice activism All these developments are assessed in this volume This is the second volume in the Democratic Marxism series It elaborates on crucial themes introduced in the first volume Marxism in the 21st Century Crisis Critique and Struggle edited by Michelle Williams and Vishwas Satgar Entrepreneurship in Africa ,2017-09-25 Chapters in this book contribute to our understanding of the theory structure and practice of entrepreneurship in diverse African countries Case studies examined include African multinational banks and businesses female entrepreneurs culture and entrepreneurship finance and entrepreneurship and SMEs
