 - b. a separate test scoring bubble sheet for recording your answers.Check that you have all the correct pages. Bring any discrepancy to the attention of an invigilator.
2. You can remove the data page from this booklet and use it for rough work. You may also use the backs of any of the pages for your rough calculations. But only the bubble scoring sheet is graded.
3. A scientific calculator may be used. Calculators that save text are not allowed.
4. Notes, printed material of any kind, any communication with other students or any other aids are not permitted. Keep your eyes on your own work.
5. Only use pencil or dark coloured ink (black or blue) on the bubble sheet. Complete the following:
 - a) Neatly print your full name, as it appears on CourseLink, clearly within the labelled region.²
 - b) Neatly print your 7-digit STUDENT ID number clearly within the labelled area.²
 - c) Fill in the bubble for Version B to represent this version of the test.²

²Failure to fill in your name, ID number OR version letter properly will result in a GRADE OF ZERO.
(No additional info needs to be filled in, e.g., section or date, within the bubble sheet's header.)
6. For each multiple-choice question, indicate your answer on the bubble sheet by filling in the appropriate bubble completely. If you change your mind and need to fill in another bubble, fully erase the unwanted bubble (pencil) or cross it out with an X (pen) to make it clear that it is not the answer you selected. There is no penalty for incorrect answers.
7. While working on questions, keep your bubble sheet tucked under your test booklet, to guard your answers.
8. The Test Scoring Bubble Sheet is considered your final answer no matter what may appear within your booklet. Answers must be transferred to the bubble sheet within the test period.
