Colonialism, Han, and the Transformative Spirit Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2013-04-18 Globalism colonialism and consumerism have caused unjust suffering han for the earth's exploited peoples and the exploited lands To reverse this tragedy we need to work for a safer sustainable planet and renew our inspiration from God as the transforming Spirit who gives sustains and empowers life to all Colonialism, Han, and the Transformative Spirit Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2013-04-18 Globalism colonialism and consumerism have caused unjust suffering han for the earth's exploited peoples and the exploited lands To reverse this tragedy we need to work for a safer sustainable planet and renew our inspiration from God as the transforming Spirit who gives sustains and empowers life to all Embracing the Other Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2015-10-21 An innovative Asian feminist perspective on God's Spirit We live in a time of great racial strife and global conflict How do we work toward healing reconciliation and justice among all people regardless of race or gender In Embracing the Other Grace Ji Sun Kim demonstrates that it is possible only through God's Spirit Working from a feminist Asian perspective Kim develops a new constructive global pneumatology that works toward gender and racial ethnic justice She draws on concepts from Asian and indigenous cultures to reimagine the divine as Spirit God who is restoring shalom in the world Through the power of Spirit God Kim says our brokenness is healed and we can truly love and embrace the Other Experiments in Love Emily Ralph Servant, 2021-03-12 Could it be that the stories we tell in our churches weaken our efforts to be congregations who take risks in mission for the sake of love In this thought provoking book Emily Ralph Servant suggests that the work of today's leaders is to explore new stories listen to new voices and open ourselves up to the Spirit's work of transformation Experiments in Love engages in a three way dialogue with feminist and liberation theologians the social and behavioral sciences and the Anabaptist tradition Out of this vibrant conversation emerges the story of a God who takes the risk of being radically present to a vulnerable world Because of God's courageous presence with us we can also take the risk of being vulnerably present to others as God invites us all to participate in God's community of life love and flourishing Asian Case Studies on Translating Christianity Heejun Yang, 2024-03-14 Asian Case Studies on Translating Christianity brings historical expressions of Asian Christianity into contemporary theological conversation The book offers case studies of Jingjiao Christianity in Tang China the Jesuit mission in Ming China indigenous theology in colonial Korea and contemporary Asian American theology The case studies especially examine how the names and understandings of the Trinity have been changed in the processes of borrowing erasing and elevating the meanings of Eastern local concepts to translate the message of Christianity Not only are these diverse expressions of Christianity unique and valuable in and of themselves but they testify that diverse understandings are a God given phenomenon Heejun Yang draws on contemporary theological hermeneutics to argue that it is the self communicative nature of God that helps articulate the diverse understandings of God in these cases Yang posits the Triune God as both the starting and ending points of the Christian hermeneutic process and claims that this understanding can be a way for the church to embrace different Christian communities while moving forward in their own unique complexities Reimagining Spirit Grace Ji-Sun Kim, 2019-11-19 The Spirit presents itself to many as an enigma Its existence is mysterious and complex generating misunderstandings and unawareness of its true purpose The Spirit s ambiguous nature opens the opportunity for study to unearth the exciting truths that it holds The Spirit is present in our world in various forms This book aims to examine the Spirit as experienced in light wind breath and vibration to help us uncover some of its aspects that invite us to work for climate justice racial justice and gender justice The Holy Spirit has always been a mover and shaker of ideas and action The Spirit s presence moves stirs and changes us to become aware of the social ills in our world The different ways in which we reimagine the Holy Spirit can challenge some traditional assumptions in Christianity and provide a liberative vision that allows us to work for social justice The work of the Holy Spirit stirs us to work toward new kinships with God that are sustainable just and whole Salt, Light, and a City, Second Edition

Graham Joseph Hill, 2020-07-24 Jesus is calling his church to be a multiethnic and missional people who listen and learn from the many voices of world Christianity Graham Joseph Hill issues a moving call for churches to be missional by being conformed to the image of Jesus Christ Hill does this by exploring the thinking of twenty five Asian African Latin American Indigenous African American diaspora Caribbean Oceanian Eastern European and Middle Eastern pastors and theologians These are as diverse as Melba Padilla Maggay Emmanuel Katongole Lamin Sanneh Oscar Muriu Ruth Padilla DeBorst Pope Francis Richard Twiss Lisa Sharon Harper Willie James Jennings Ada Mar a Isasi D az Soong Chan Rah and Mitri Raheb These voices show us the future of missional churches in world Christianity When churches are conformed to Christ they make disciples heal a broken world and witness to Jesus and his gospel Jesus forms us in his image and moves us to be a people of shalom humility character justice peace wisdom prayer beauty and witness The church has had a Reformation but now it needs a Conformation Hill explores biblical themes and the voices of world Christianity to show that a missional church is conformed to the image of the incarnate crucified resurrected and glorified Christ Conformity to Christ is the heart of missional ecclesiology and discipleship A Theology of International Development Thia Cooper, 2020-02-05 Religion and development have been intertwined since development s beginnings yet faith based aid and development agencies consistently fail to consider how their theology and practice intersect This book offers a Christian theology of development with practical solutions to bridge the gap and return to truly faith based policies and practices Development aims to raise the living standard of the world s poor mainly through small scale projects that increase economic growth A theology of liberation provided a critique to development practice but a specific theology of development is still lacking and many faith based aid agencies have failed to adapt their practice In applying theological thinking to development the author argues that aid agencies need to address the entrenchment of unequal power relations and embrace a holistic notion of development defined by the needs of those most marginalized instead of by a focus on economic growth Development organisations need to consider the distinction between charity and justice and to empower people in the Global South paying particular attention to the intersections of race class sexuality religion and the environment Overall this book is a powerful call to upend development practice as it currently exists and to return faith based organizations to following Christian practices It will be an important read for religion and development researchers practitioners and students Salvation for the

Sinned-Against Kevin P. Considine, 2015-01-22 The problem of the barbarous excess of human suffering is becoming the main question of global Christianity In an intercultural globalizing world how do we envision the wounds of sin and God's saving work of healing liberation and redemption Salvation for the Sinned Against attempts to address these questions and to suggest a renewed understanding of God's salvation for the victims of sin within the intercultural and globalizing context of the twenty first century It offers a thorough treatment of Edward Schillebeeckx intercultural hermeneutics and the Korean concept of han and brings them into dialogue with the Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World Gaudium et spes This book is the first in depth study of han from a Roman Catholic perspective and the first to attempt to integrate han into Roman Catholic theology in order to begin to envision salvation for the sinned against creature Its insights into the experience and message of salvation for the sinned against as well as the perpetrators speak not only to the ecclesial sphere but to the public sphere and beyond Although written from a Western North American social location this is a book that can be useful far beyond this context Just the Facts Ma'am R. Isaac, D. Norton, 2013-07-12 Just the Facts Ma'am is the only book written from an economics perspective that addresses one of the most remarkable cases of the reversal of corruption in the history of the United States a case of corruption in the Los Angeles Police Department
