Developing Power Arvonne S. Fraser,Irene Tinker,2004 Founders of the global women s movement share personal accounts about the trials and challenges of their work      Women's Human Rights Niamh Reilly,2013-04-23 Women s Human Rights Seeking Gender Justice in a Globalising Age explores the emergence of transnational UN oriented feminist advocacy for womens human rights especially over the past three decades It identifies the main feminist influences that have shaped the movement liberal radical third world and cosmopolitan and exposes how the Western legalist state centric and liberal biases of mainstream human rights discourse impede the realisation of human rights in womens lives everywhere The book traces the evolution of the womens human rights movement through an examination of its key issues debates and practical interventions in international law and policy arenas This includes efforts to Develop global gender equality norms via the UN Womens Convention Frame violence against women as a human rights issue Address gender based crimes in conflict situations include women in conflict resolution and post conflict reconstruction and challenge new forms of militarism Highlight the gendered human rights dimensions of widening inequalities in a context of neo liberal globalisation Develop human rights responses to anti feminist fundamentalist movements with a focus on reproductive and sexual rights Ultimately Women s Human Rights reaffirms a commitment to critically reinterpreted universal human rights principles and demonstrates the vital role that bottom up transnational movements play in making them a reality in women s lives

International Development Bruce Currie-Alder,Ravi Kanbur,David M. Malone,Rohinton Medhora,2014 A central premise is that an objective and universally accepted measure of success in development and paths to it does not exist

The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements Rawwida Baksh-Soodeen,Wendy Harcourt,2015 The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Feminist Movements explores the historical political economic and social contexts in which transnational feminist movements have emerged and spread and the contributions they have made to global knowledge power and social change over the past half century The publication of the handbook in 2015 marks the fortieth anniversary of the United Nations International Women s Year the thirtieth anniversary of the Third World Conference on Women held in Nairobi the twentieth anniversary of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action and the fifteenth anniversaries of the Millennium Development Goals and of UN Security Council Resolution 1325 on women peace and security The editors and contributors critically interrogate transnational feminist movements from a broad spectrum of locations in the global South and North feminist organizations and networks at all levels local national regional global and glocal wider civil society organizations and networks governmental and multilateral agencies and academic and research institutions among others The handbook reflects candidly on what we have learned about transnational feminist movements What are the different spaces from which transnational feminisms have operated and in what ways How have they contributed to our understanding of the myriad formal and informal ways in which gendered power relations define and inform everyday life To what extent have they destabilized or transformed the global hegemonic systems that constitute patriarchy From a position of fifty years of knowledge production activism working with institutions and critical reflection the handbook recognizes that transnational feminist movements form a key epistemic community that can inspire and provide leadership in shaping political spaces and institutions at all levels and transforming international political economy development and peace processes The handbook is organized into ten sections each beginning with an introduction by the editors The sections explore the main themes that have emerged from transnational feminist movements knowledge theory and praxis organizing for change body politics health and well being human rights and human security economic and social justice citizenship and statebuilding militarism and religious fundamentalisms peace movements UNSCR 1325 and postconflict rebuilding feminist political ecology and digital age transformations and future trajectories

Rethinking Gender Equality in Global Governance Lars Engberg-Pedersen, Adam Fejerskov, Signe Marie Cold-Ravnkilde, 2019-04-26 A very valuable and much needed book on a central element in the processes of social change the construction and reconstruction of social norms as they move between global and local levels Naila Kabeer London School of Economics and Political Science UK This book explores how gender equality norms are ever evolving and argues convincingly that we cannot take their effectiveness nor their acceptance for granted Judith Kelley Duke Sanford School of Public Policy USA In an era of increasing resistance to gender equality this is a much needed volume that attends to how gender equality norms are interpreted and contested in governance organisations ranging from the UN and the EU to Mercosur and women s NGOs in India and Uganda Ann Towns University of Gothenburg Sweden This edited collection provides a new theoretical approach to the study of how global norms influence social processes It analyses the institutional and highly political processes whereby actors be they local national regional or trans national engage with global norms of gender equality The editors bring together key thinkers who emphasise how context and history effect norm engagement and how particular groups and actors tend to be marginalised from discussions of global norms By proposing a situated approach that underlines the contingent multi level processes that occur when actors interpret use manipulate bend or betray norms notions of norm diffusion are fundamentally challenged This book makes a further crucial contribution to the study of norms and gender equality in global governance by analysing very different empirical contexts from New Delhi and St Petersburg to the Organisation of American States and from Kampala and New York to the European Union Reshaping the Holy Elora Shehabuddin, 2008-07-28

Through extensive field research Elora Shehabuddin explores the profound implications of women s political and social mobilization for reshaping Islam Specifically she examines the lives of Muslim women in Bangladesh who have become increasingly mobilized by the activities of predominantly secular NGOs yet who desire to retain reclaim and reshape rather than reject their faith In their employment and in their interactions with the legal system the state NGOs and political and religious groups women are changing state practices views of women in the public sphere and the nature of lived Islam itself In contrast to most work on Islam and Muslims which has focused on the Middle East and has privileged the study of religious and legal texts this book redirects our attention to South Asia home to one of the largest Muslim populations in the world and emphasizes the actual experiences of Muslims Women and gender as well as Bangladesh s formally democratic context are central to this inquiry and analysis
