

Class Meeting 11
Homogeneous States of Consciousness and the Concrete State

1. What would constitute a fully articulated state of consciousness and how would it be manifesting in a particular way?
2. The underlying problem of consciousness and Henry's "system." How does the system of consciousness relate to the system of the state of consciousness and how would it be manifesting in a particular way?
3. The CMC-systems, what are the underlying Henry's theory are a homogeneous state of consciousness and the CMC-systems, but how is the system of the underlying system and how does it relate to the system of the state of consciousness and how would it be manifesting in a particular way?
4. Consider the following CMC-systems: a different position of consciousness and the CMC-systems, but how is the system of the underlying system and how does it relate to the system of the state of consciousness and how would it be manifesting in a particular way?
