

Graduation Speech

Hello. It is an honor for me to be here tonight to bring greetings and congratulations from the school board.

As I began thinking about what I should say to you, I discovered that I could go on for hours talking about your years at (name of school) High School . . . about the experiences you've had which prepared you for this day and for the future. I began making notes about all the advice I should share with you and about all of the many topics I wanted to cover.

Then a friend reminded me about the fate of the famous Greek philosopher, Socrates, who lived a long, long time ago.

Socrates was very intelligent. But Socrates gave long speeches, and his friends killed him.

Since I am no Socrates . . . nor do I want to end up like Socrates . . . I will be brief and to the point.

Tonight (number of graduates) seniors are graduating from (name of school) High School. The room is packed with your friends and relatives, and every person here is proud of you . . . of your accomplishments . . . and of the goals that you have reached. If each of us were to write down a definition of a successful graduate, we would quickly discover that some of the same words and phrases would be repeated over and over again. Common themes would be – dedication, perseverance, integrity, honesty, conscientiousness, dependability and hard work.

From all of the terms used to describe graduates, the one I think should receive top billing is "winner". Each and every one of you is a winner! You have demonstrated through hard work, dependability, conscientiousness,

Dare Officer Graduation Speeches:

Just Dope Allison Margolin, 2022-08-30 For readers of Dopesick and In the Realm of Hungry Ghosts a celebrated cannabis attorney's personal look at the War on Drugs and what comes next for the drug legalization movement Getting high is something most of us do and in many cases do safely yet drugs remain a singular public enemy In a ranging blend of memoir pop culture policy critique and social analysis LA based criminal defense attorney Allison Margolin explores why and what we can do about it Informed by Margolin's experiences as a drug user advocate and the daughter of California's most renowned and infamous cannabis attorney Just Dope offers a look at where our current drug policy fails It exposes the true history of drug prohibition in the United States sharing why it started how it evolved and where it stands now And it looks unflinchingly at the false dichotomy between good drugs and bad drugs and Margolin's experience with programs like D A R E that misguidedly ask you to Just Say No For readers of All Day is a Long Time and In the Realm of Hungry Ghosts Just Dope is an experiential tour de force of personal essay and whip smart policy critique and a vital call to knowledge and action

Miller, 1924 DARE to Say No Max Felker-Kantor, 2024-04-02 With its signature DARE to keep kids off drugs slogan and iconic t-shirts DARE Drug Abuse Resistance Education was the most popular drug education program of the 1980s and 1990s But behind the cultural phenomenon is the story of how DARE and other antidrug education programs brought the War on Drugs into schools and ensured that the velvet glove of antidrug education would be backed by the iron fist of rigorous policing and harsh sentencing Max Felker-Kantor has assembled the first history of DARE which began in Los Angeles in 1983 as a joint venture between the police department and the unified school district By the mid 90s it was taught in 75 percent of school districts across the United States DARE received near universal praise from parents educators police officers and politicians and left an indelible stamp on many millennial memories But the program had more nefarious ends and Felker-Kantor complicates simplistic narratives of the War on Drugs He shows how policing entered US schools and framed drug use as the result of personal responsibility moral failure and poor behavior deserving of punishment rather than something deeply rooted in state retrenchment the abandonment of social service provisions and structures of social and economic inequality Bulletin - U.S. Coast Guard Academy Alumni Association United States Coast Guard Academy.
