Your Career in the Media & Creative Industries Georgia Stone, Matthew Kerry, 2023-11-23 Employability is at the front of all our minds when studying for a degree but it can be hard to find resources that offer thorough guidance in finding placements and job opportunities This textbook offers you a step by step guide to careers in the media industry Drawing on their own extensive teaching experience the authors ask you questions in every chapter to help you practise your critical thinking skills They offer specific exercises to help you develop a portfolio CV social media profiles and interview skills This up to date resource will equip you to discover and secure your dream creative job Packed with exclusive insights in Student Voices and Hear From the Experts sections this book contains tips from those at every stage of their career This book is written to complement employability and work placement modules across a whole range of media and communication degrees but it is also for any undergraduate student looking to work in the media and creative industries It covers every stage of the job seeking process starting with guidance for identifying potential employment sectors and incorporating insights into what employers are looking for from you This key text will leave you feeling career ready by informing you about the world of opportunities in the media and creative industries By the end of the book you will have practised writing a cover letter and delivering an elevator pitch allowing you to feel confident as you take the next steps beyond university Spanning topical issues from working from home and freelancing to advice on avoiding burnout this introduction to your media career is both current and comprehensive Just Not That Likable Gloria J. Romero, 2021-10-19 Gloria Romero former California Senate Majority Leader and Professor Emeritus of Psychology shatters the glass ceiling in a sweeping takedown of gender bias at the workplace and the price women and society pay for the virulent double standard of the likability factor that persists in the workplace She exposes the link between success and likability that 21st century women leaders face in politics and the workplace In a book both accessible and enlightening Senator Romero stands as a woman unafraid to break down barriers for women As the first female Majority Leader of the upper house in California s State Legislature she authored major reform laws in public education criminal justice governmental ethics and transparency Just Not That Likable is the story of a trailblazer who understood that while the 20th century sexism of unequal pay for equal work had been outlawed and anti discrimination laws had become common there was still a hidden likability penalty and the so called double bind applied to successful women The book features the most comprehensive review to date of what is known about the double bind faced by women executives and leaders they are expected to exhibit strength and lead but are penalized as being abrasive or exhibiting characteristics stereotyped as being masculine Drawing on her own life as well Senator Romero s journey leads her to the realization that when women smash through the persisting ceiling still with us in the 21st century the shards cut Too deep and too often these practices and behaviors shut down opportunity for our daughters sisters and each other Just Not That Likable recognizes that our workplaces must promote practices policies and cultures which confront and disassemble this double bind for women
