Mineral Deposit Research: Meeting the Global Challenge

Jingwen Mao, Frank P. Bierlein, 2008-01-08 In June 1965 a small group of European economic geologists gathered in Heidelberg Germany at the invitation of Professor G C Amstutz and decided to establish the Society for Geology Applied to Mineral Deposits SGA and to start a journal to be called Mineralium Deposita The first issue of the journal came out in May 1966 and has now matured to a leading journal in economic geology The first Biennial SGA Meeting was held successfully in Nancy France in 1991 with subsequent meetings in Grenada Spain 1993 Prague Czech Republic 1995 Turku Finland 1997 London United Kingdom 1999 Krakov Poland 2001 and Athens Greece 2003 In 2002 the SGA Council decided that its 8 Biennial Meeting in 2005 should be held in Beijing China making this the first Biennial Meeting to be convened outside the rope Significantly 2005 also marks the 40 anniversary of the SGA The decision to host this year's premier meeting in Beijing reflects the Society's successful transition from its traditional European focus to a truly global organization with 24% of SGA members situated in North America 13% in Australia and Oceania and 5% in Asia Over the last 27 years China has made dramatic progress towards political and economic reform and opening the nation to the outside world China's rapid economic development demands increasing amounts of minerals fuels and materials and this is currently a major driver for the global economic markets

Tourism and Geopolitics

Derek R Hall, 2017-01-25 With 29 contributors from across Europe and beyond this work represents a unique and important resource that examines the many relationships between tourism and geopolitics with a focus on experiences drawn from Central and Eastern Europe It begins by assessing the changing nature of geopolitics from pejorative associations with Nazism to the more recent critical and feminist geopolitics of social science's cultural turn The book then addresses the important historical role of Central and Eastern Europe CEE in geopolitical thinking before exemplifying a range of contemporary interactions between tourism and geopolitics within this critical region Pursuing innovative analytical paths the book demonstrates the interrelated nature of tourism and geopolitics and emphasizes the freshness of this research area Addressing key principles and ideas which are applicable globally it is an essential source for researchers teachers and students of tourism geography political science and European studies as well as for diplomatic business and consultant practitioners

Politics, Violence, Memory

Jeffrey S. Kopstein, Jelena Subotić, Susan Welch, 2023-01-15 Politics Violence Memory highlights important new social scientific research on the Holocaust and initiates the integration of the Holocaust into mainstream social scientific research in a way that will be useful both for social scientists and historians Until recently social scientists largely ignored the Holocaust despite the centrality of these tragic events to many of their own concepts and theories In Politics Violence Memory the editors bring together contributions to understanding the Holocaust from a variety of disciplines including political science sociology demography and public health The chapters examine the sources and measurement of antisemitism explanations for collaboration rescue and survival competing accounts of neighbor on neighbor violence and the legacies of the Holocaust in contemporary Europe Politics Violence Memory brings new data to bear on these important concerns and shows how older data can be deployed in new ways to understand the index case of violence in the modern world
