Frederick Luis Aldama

Darkroom A Memoir In Black And White:

Darkroom Lila Quintero Weaver, 2012-03 The author tells her story of being a Latina in the Jim Crow South Latino/a Children's and Young Adult Writers on the Art of Storytelling Frederick Luis Aldama, 2018-10-26 Children's and young adult literature has become an essential medium for identity formation in contemporary Latino a culture in the United States This book is an original collection of more than thirty interviews led by Frederick Luis Aldama with Latino a authors working in the genre The conversations revolve around the conveyance of young Latino a experience and what that means for the authors as they overcome societal obstacles and aesthetic complexity The authors also speak extensively about their experiences within the publishing industry and with their audiences As such Aldama's collection presents an open forum to contemporary Latino a writers working in a vital literary category and sheds new light on the myriad formats distinctive nature and cultural impact it offers

Immigrants and Comics Nhora Lucía Serrano, 2021-03-09 Immigrants and Comics is an interdisciplinary themed anthology that focuses on how comics have played a crucial role in representing constructing and reifying the immigrant subject and the immigrant experience in popular global culture of the twentieth and twenty first centuries Nhora Lucía Serrano and a diverse group of contributors examine immigrant experience as they navigate new socio political milieus in cartoons comics and graphic novels across cultures and time periods They interrogate how immigration is portrayed in comics and how the immigrant was an indispensable and vital trope to the development of the comics medium in the twentieth century At the heart of the book's interdisciplinary nexus is a critical framework steeped in the ideas of remembrance and commemoration what Pierre Nora calls lieux de mémoire This book will be of interest to students and scholars in Visual Studies Comparative Literature English Ethnic Studies Francophone Studies American Studies Hispanic Studies art history and museum studies

Growing Up in the Gutter Ricardo Quintana-Vallejo, 2024-05-28 Growing Up in the Gutter Diaspora Comics is the first book length exploration of contemporary graphic coming of age narratives written in the context of diasporic and immigrant communities in the United States by and for young BIPOC LGBTQ and diasporic readers The book analyzes the complex identity formation of first and subsequent generation diasporic protagonists in globalized rural and urban environments and dissects the implications that marginalized formative processes have for the genre in its graphic version

Graphic Memories of the Civil Rights Movement Jorge Santos, 2019-06-25 A study of five graphic novels or memoirs that have reshaped the narrative of civil rights in America and an examination of the format's power to allow readers to participate in the memory making process

Visions of the Black Belt Robin McDonald, Valerie Pope Burnes, 2015-08-15 Visions of the Black Belt offers a rich cultural overview of the emblematic core of Alabama known for its prairie soils plantation manors civil rights history gothic churches traditional foodways and resilient and gracious people

Library Partnerships with Writers and Poets Carol Smallwood, Vera Gubnitskaia, 2017-03-07 Libraries and writers have always had a close working relationship Rapid advances in technology have not changed the nontechnical basis of that cooperation author talks book signings and readings are as popular as ever as are workshops and festivals This collection of 29 new essays from nearly 50 contributors from across the United States presents a variety of projects programs and services to help librarians establish relationships with the literary world promote literature to the public and foster creativity in their communities The Cambridge Companion to American Civil Rights Literature Julie

Armstrong,2015-03-02 The Cambridge Companion to American Civil Rights Literature brings together leading scholars to examine the significant traditions genres and themes of civil rights literature While civil rights scholarship has typically focused on documentary rather than creative writing and political rather than cultural history this Companion addresses the gap and provides university students with a vast introduction to an impressive range of authors including Richard Wright Lorraine Hansberry Gwendolyn Brooks James Baldwin Amiri Baraka and Toni Morrison Accessible to undergraduates and academics alike this Companion surveys the critical landscape of a rapidly growing field and lays the foundation for future studies Making the Latino South Cecilia Márquez,2023-08-10 In the 1940s South it seemed that non Black Latino people were on the road to whiteness In fact in many places throughout the region governed by Jim Crow they were able to attend white schools live in white neighborhoods and marry white southerners However by the early 2000s Latino people in the South were routinely cast as illegal aliens and targeted by some of the harshest anti immigrant legislation in the country This book helps explain how race evolved so dramatically for this population over the course of the second half of the twentieth century Cecilia M rquez guides readers through time and place from Washington DC to the deep South tracing how non Black Latino people moved through the region s evolving racial landscape In considering Latino presence in the South s schools its workplaces its tourist destinations and more M rquez tells a challenging story of race making that defies easy narratives of progressive change and promises to reshape the broader American histories of Jim Crow the civil rights movement immigration work and culture Redrawing the Historical Past Martha J.
