Dangerous Estate Francis Williams, 1957 Dangerous Estate, 1907 Dangerous Estate. The Anatomy of Newspapers Edward Francis Williams (Baron Francis-Williams of Abinger.), 1957 The Invention of the Newspaper Joad Raymond, 2005 First published in 1996 and here issued with a new preface this work describes the emergence of the first weekly news publications the immediate precursors of the modern newspaper Previous ed Oxford Clarendon 1996

War Torn Guy Hodgson, 2015-05-22 The Manchester Blitz lasted two nights in December 1940 when around 1 000 people were killed and more than 3 000 injured This book focuses on the reaction by the local and regional newspapers of Manchester which was Britain's second press centre at the time to this heavy bombing Newsgathering in Washington Dan Nimmo, Georgie Anne Geyer, 2017-07-12 In the early twentieth century Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Walter Lippmann said that the presentation of truthful news lies at the heart of democracy This volume strong strong stems from Dan D Nimmo's conviction that opinion and policymaking are also significant interrelated processes within any political system A democracy poses problematic questions of the manner and means by which political ideas opinions and issues are transmitted throughout the body politic In the United States such communication is carried on primarily through the news media Reporters and their sources interact to form crucial relationships linking citizen and official Nimmo focuses on that interaction using personal interviews with selected samples of Washington correspondents and their official news sources as his evidence Nimmo's research examines the relationships that develop between news sources and reporters as each engages in political communication indicates the factors most influential in determining such relationships and suggests the implications such findings have for interpreting the tension that characterizes government press relations in a democracy such as the United States In this era of heightened attention to the role of the media in political discourse reissuance of this volume could not be timelier This study features a new preface by Daniel Pearl Award winner Georgie Anne Geyer It should be read by all media specialists communication scholars and journalists and will be valuable for those entering these fields as well Plant Here The Standard Dennis Griffiths, 2016-07-27 Plant Here the Standard tells the story of the world's oldest evening newspaper the London Evening Standard Commencing in the time of Oliver Cromwell it traces the history of the Baldwin Family fearless Protestant publishers whose successors launched The Standard in 1827 Later owners of the paper were to include C Arthur Pearson founder of the Daily Express Lord Beaverbrook and now Lord Rothermere And throughout there are tales of the paper's scoops its famous journalists and cartoonists and its political involvements The News from Ireland Maurice Walsh, 2011-03-24 The Anglo Irish war of 1919 1921 was an international historical landmark the first successful revolution against British rule and the beginning of the end of the Empire However the Irish revolutionaries did not win their struggle on the battlefield their key victory was in mobilising public opinion in Britain and the rest of the world Journalists and writers flocked to Ireland where the increasingly brutal conflict was seen as the crucible for settling some of the key issues of the new world order emerging from the ruins of World War One On trial was the British Empire's claim to be the champion of civilisation as well as the principle of self-determination proclaimed by the American president Woodrow Wilson The News from Ireland vividly explores the work of British and American correspondents in Ireland as well as other foreign journalists and literary figures It offers a penetrating and persuasive assessment of the Irish revolution's place in a key moment of world history as well as the role of the press and journalism in the conflict This important book is essential reading for anyone interested in Irish history and how our understanding of history generally is shaped by the media Rise And Fall Of The Murdoch Empire John Lisners, 2013-07-24 Rupert Murdoch ruthless visionary empire builder and business genius He has created a global media network which has made him one of the most powerful and influential figures in the world So potent was the force of his empire that he was even on first name terms with presidents and prime ministers superpowers were only a telephone call away But just recently rather than controlling the news Murdoch has instead become the front page story as the world had been gripped by the unfolding drama of the News International phone hacking scandal

The British Press and Nazi Germany Kylie Galbraith, 2020-12-10 What was known and understood about the nature of the Nazi dictatorship in Britain prior to war in 1939 How was Nazism viewed by those outside of Germany The British Press and Nazi Germany considers these questions through the lens of the British press Until now studies that centre on British press attitudes to Nazi Germany have concentrated on issues of foreign policy The focus of this book is quite different In using material that has largely been neglected Kylie Galbraith examines what the British press reported about life inside the Nazi dictatorship In doing so the book imparts important insights into what was known and understood about the Nazi revolution And because the overwhelming proportion of the British public's only means of news was the press this volume shows what people in Britain could have known about the Nazi dictatorship It reveals what the British people were being told about the regime specifically the destruction of Weimar democracy the ruthless persecution of minorities the suppression of the churches and the violent factional infighting within Nazism itself This pathbreaking examination of the British press coverage of Nazism in the 1930s greatly enhances our knowledge of the fascist regime with which the British Government was attempting to reach agreement at the time
