Dar es Salaam Usiku:

Dar es Salaam usiku Ben R. Mtobwa, 1998 A novel Street Archives and City Life Emily Callaci, 2017-10-24 In Street Archives and City Life Emily Callaci maps a new terrain of political and cultural production in mid to late twentieth century Tanzanian urban landscapes While the postcolonial Tanzanian ruling party TANU adopted a policy of rural socialism known as Ujamaa between 1967 and 1985 an influx of youth migrants to the city of Dar es Salaam generated innovative forms of urbanism through the production and circulation of what Callaci calls street archives These urban intellectuals neither supported nor contested the ruling party's anti city philosophy rather they navigated the complexities of inhabiting unplanned African cities during economic crisis and social transformation through various forms of popular texts that included women's Christian advice literature newspaper columns self published pulp fiction novellas and song lyrics Through these textual networks Callaci shows how youth migrants and urban intellectuals in Dar es Salaam fashioned a collective ethos of postcolonial African citizenship This spirit ushered in a revolution rooted in the city and its networks an urban revolution that arose in spite of the nation state's pro rural ideology The Swahili Novel Xavier Garnier, 2013 WINNER 2015 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Award An overview of the Swahili novel its place in a globalized world and a reflection on the status and dynamism of Kafka's concept of minor literature For more than fifty years a dynamic modern literature has been developing in the Kiswahili language The political weight that Kiswahili carries as the emerging national and pan national language of many East African countries places this literature much of it in the form of novels at the centre of heated literary debates on the social function of literature in the context of rapid global social change Garnier provides new insights into the Swahili novel form with all its vibrancy and capacity for experimentation Its obsession with social issues relates to larger all pervasive political debates running through East Africa in its press its streets its public and private places The novels both record and provoke these debates Based on the study of more than 175 Swahili novels by almost 100 authors Garnier brings to light a body of work much neglected by African literary critics but which looks outwards to the wider world Xavier Garnier teaches African Literature at the Universit Paris 3 Sorbonne Nouvelle and is former director of the Centre d Etudes des Nouveaux Espaces Litt raires Universit Paris 13 African Art in Detail Christopher Spring, 2009 This book opens with the question What is African art The answer is a brilliantly colorful and detailed look at the myriad materials and genres forms and meanings cultural contexts and expressions that comprise artistic traditions across this vast and varied continent Viewing artworks in their contexts ancient and modern urban and rural western and eastern decorative and functional the book is nothing less than a virtual tour of African culture Masks textiles royal art sculpture ceramics tools and weapons in each instance the book features examples that reveal the most significant aspects of workmanship materials and design in objects of wood stone ivory clay metalwork featherwork leather basketwork and cloth Photographs of each piece alongside close ups of fine details afford new views of these works and allow for intriguing comparisons between seemingly unrelated objects and media The featured details evoke the hand and eye of the most accomplished craftspeople across Africa past and present In sum these photographs along with Chris Spring s enlightening commentary offer an experience of African art that is at once broad and deep richly informed and intimately felt They are at the same time a kaleidoscopic view of art from prehistory to gestures prefiguring the future The Body in Language Matthias

Thornber,2020-03-02 Read an interview with Karen Thornber In Global Healing Literature Advocacy Care Karen Laura Thornber analyzes how narratives from diverse communities globally engage with a broad variety of diseases and other serious health conditions and advocate for empathic compassionate and respectful care that facilitates healing and enables wellbeing The three parts of this book discuss writings from Africa the Americas Asia Europe the Middle East and Oceania that implore societies to shatter the devastating social stigmas which prevent billions from accessing effective care to increase the availability of quality person focused healthcare and to prioritize partnerships that facilitate healing and enable wellbeing for both patients and loved ones Thornber s Global Healing remaps the contours of comparative literature world literature the medical humanities and the health humanities Watch a video interview with Thornber by the Mahindra Humanities Center part of their conversations on Covid 19 Read an interview with Thornber on Brill s Humanities Matter blog The Swahili Novels of Tanzanian Women Izabela Romańczuk,2024-09-11 This book provides a rich and full analysis of female Swahili novelists from a feminist perspective highlighting their important contributions to the living Swahili literary and intellectual tradition Compared to the diverse and centuries old oral literature or religious philosophical poetry tradition developing since at least the 17th century the novel is a relatively young phenomenon in the rich body of Swahili literary output emerging only in the last hundred years Since then academia has focused primarily on male novelists largely disregarding important female writers such as Ndyanao Balisidya Zainab Burhani Martha Mvungi Mlangala Zainab Mwanga Lucy Nyasulu and Zainab Alwi Baharoon This book traces the evolution of women s writing in Tanzania highlighting emancipatory and feminist discourses as well as intersectional themes of class education and urbanisation The author demonstrates how concepts such as utu the essence of humanity aibu shame disgrace and heshima honor social respectability are used in the novels to articulate the value systems and social norms in Swahili communities including the gendered perceptions of women that they create Grounded throughout in the historical and socio political contexts of the authors it discusses this book will be an important read for researchers of African literature and women s studies Africa Every Day Oluwakemi M. Balogun, Lisa Gilman, Melissa Graboyes, Habib Iddrisu, 2019-11-12 Africa Every Day presents an exuberant thoughtful and necessary counterpoint to the prevailing emphasis in introductory African studies classes on war poverty corruption disease and human rights violations on the continent These challenges are real and deserve sustained attention but this volume shows that adverse conditions do not prevent people from making music falling in love playing sports participating in festivals writing blogs telling jokes making videos playing games eating delicious food and finding pleasure in their daily lives Across seven sections Celebrations and Rites of Passage Socializing and Friendship Love Sex and Marriage Sports and Recreation Performance Language and Creativity Technology and Media and Labor and Livelihoods the accessible multidisciplinary essays in Africa Every Day address these creative and dynamic elements of daily life without romanticizing them Ultimately the book shows that forms of leisure and popular culture in Africa are best discussed in terms of indigenization adaptation and appropriation rather than the static binary of European foreign global and African Most of all it invites readers to reflect on the crucial similarities rather than the differences between their lives and those of their African counterparts Contributors Hadeer Aboelnagah Issahaku Adam Joseph Osuolale Ayodokun Victoria Abiola Ayodokun Omotoyosi Babalola Martha Bannikov Mokaya Bosire Emily Callaci Deborah Durham Birgit Englert Laura Fair John Fenn Lara Rosenoff Gauvin Michael Gennaro Lisa Gilman Charlotte Grabli Joshua Grace Dorothy L Hodgson Akwasi Kumi Kyereme Prince F M Lamba Cheikh Tidiane Lo Bill McCoy Nginjai Paul Moreto Jacqueline Bethel Tchouta Mougou James Nindi Erin Nourse Eric Debrah Otchere Alex Perullo Daniel Jordan Smith Maya Smith Steven Van Wolputte and Scott M Youngstedt
