

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

Dare Graduation Speech:

Just Dope Allison Margolin, 2022-08-30 For readers of Dopesick and In the Realm of Hungry Ghosts a celebrated cannabis attorney's personal look at the War on Drugs and what comes next for the drug legalization movement Getting high is something most of us do and in many cases do safely yet drugs remain a singular public enemy In a ranging blend of memoir pop culture policy critique and social analysis LA based criminal defense attorney Allison Margolin explores why and what we can do about it Informed by Margolin's experiences as a drug user advocate and the daughter of California's most renowned and infamous cannabis attorney Just Dope offers a look at where our current drug policy fails It exposes the true history of drug prohibition in the United States sharing why it started how it evolved and where it stands now And it looks unflinchingly at the false dichotomy between good drugs and bad drugs and Margolin's experience with programs like D A R E that misguidedly ask you to Just Say No For readers of All Day is a Long Time and In the Realm of Hungry Ghosts Just Dope is an experiential tour de force of personal essay and whip smart policy critique and a vital call to knowledge and action

Oversight Hearing on Drug Abuse Education Programs United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Elementary, Secondary, and Vocational Education, 1991 DARE to Say No Max Felker-Kantor, 2024-04-02 With its signature DARE to keep kids off drugs slogan and iconic t-shirts DARE Drug Abuse Resistance Education was the most popular drug education program of the 1980s and 1990s But behind the cultural phenomenon is the story of how DARE and other antidrug education programs brought the War on Drugs into schools and ensured that the velvet glove of antidrug education would be backed by the iron fist of rigorous policing and harsh sentencing Max Felker-Kantor has assembled the first history of DARE which began in Los Angeles in 1983 as a joint venture between the police department and the unified school district By the mid 90s it was taught in 75 percent of school districts across the United States DARE received near universal praise from parents educators police officers and politicians and left an indelible stamp on many millennial memories But the program had more nefarious ends and Felker-Kantor complicates simplistic narratives of the War on Drugs He shows how policing entered US schools and framed drug use as the result of personal responsibility moral failure and poor behavior deserving of punishment rather than something deeply rooted in state retrenchment the abandonment of social service provisions and structures of social and economic inequality The Burdens of Aspiration Elsa Davidson, 2011-08-22 During the tech boom Silicon Valley became one of the most concentrated zones of wealth polarization and social inequality in the United States a place with a fast disappearing middle class persistent pockets of poverty and striking gaps in educational and occupational achievement along class and racial lines Low wage workers and their families experienced a profound sense of exclusion from the techno-entrepreneurial culture while middle class residents witnessing up close the seemingly overnight success of a new entrepreneurial class negotiated both new and seemingly unattainable standards of personal success and the erosion of their own economic security The Burdens of

Aspiration explores the imprint of the region's success-driven public culture, the realities of increasing social and economic insecurity, and models of success emphasized in contemporary public schools for the region's working and middle-class youth. Focused on two disparate groups of students—low-income at-risk Latino youth attending a specialized program exposing youth to high-tech industry within an underperforming public high school and middle-income white and Asian students attending a high-performing public school with informal connections to the tech elite—Elsa Davidson offers an in-depth look at the process of forming aspirations across lines of race and class. By analyzing the successes and sometimes unanticipated effects of the schools' attempts to shape the aspirations and values of their students, she provides keen insights into the role schooling plays in social reproduction and how dynamics of race and class inform ideas about responsible citizenship that are instilled in America's youth.

The Madwoman and the Roomba Sandra Tsing Loh, 2020-06-02 A comic exploration of a year in the life of an imaginatively twisted and fearless Los Angeles Times best-selling author. Ah, 55. Gateway to the golden years. Professional summing. Emotional maturity. Easy surfing toward the glassy blue waters of retirement. Or maybe not. Middle age for Sandra Tsing Loh feels more like living a disorganized 25-year-old's life in an 85-year-old's malfunctioning body. With raucous wit and carefree candor, Loh recounts the struggles of leaning in, staying lean, and keeping her family well-fed and financially afloat—all those burdens of running a household that still all too often fall to women. The Madwoman and the Roomba chronicles a roller-coaster year for Loh, her partner, and her two teenage daughters in their ramshackle quasi-Craftsman with a front lawn that's more like a rectangle of compacted dirt and mice that greet her as she makes her morning coffee. Her daughters are spending more time online than off; her partner has become a Hindu, bringing in a household of monks; and she and her girlfriends are wondering over Groupon well-drinks how they got here. Whether prematurely freaking out about her daughters' college applications, worrying over her eccentric aging father, or overcoming the pitfalls of long-term partnership and the temptations of paired-with-cheese online goddess webinars, Loh somehow navigates the realities of what it means to be a middle-aged woman in the twenty-first century. Including a new epilogue hilariously recounting her family's quarantine experience during the pandemic, The Madwoman and the Roomba is a wildly funny testament to Loh's brilliant wit and rock-solid resilience. Sharp, 2007 School Crisis Case Studies was written for educators so that they are prepared in the event that a crisis occurs within their school.
