Darger The Henry Darger Collection At The American Folk Art Museum:

Darger Henry Darger, Brook Davis Anderson, American Folk Art Museum, 2001-12 Henry Darger who died in 1973 was a secretive Chicago janitor who has since been recognised as one of the supreme self taught artists of the 20th century This volume catalogues the American Folk Art Museum's recent acquisition of 37 Darger paintings Darger Brooke Davis Anderson, 2001 American Folk Art Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2012-03-19 Folk art is as varied as it is indicative of person and place informed by innovation and grounded in cultural context The variety and versatility of 300 American folk artists is captured in this collection of informative and thoroughly engaging essays American Folk Art A Regional Reference offers a collection of fascinating essays on the life and work of 300 individual artists Some of the men and women profiled in these two volumes are well known while others are important practitioners who have yet to receive the notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are The Power and Fluidity of Girlhood in Henry Darger's Art Leisa Rundquist, 2021-04-05 This book is the first to examine Henry Darger's conceptual and visual representation of girls and girlhood Specifically Leisa Rundquist charts the artist's use of little girl imagery his direct appropriations from mainstream sources as well as girls modified to meet his needs in contexts that many scholars have read as puerile and psychologically disturbed Consequently this inquiry qualifies the intersexed aspects of Darger's protagonists as well as addresses their inherent cute and little associations that signal multivocal meanings often in conflict with each other Rundquist engages Darger's art through thematic analyses of the artist's writings mature works collages and ephemeral materials This book will be of particular interest to scholars in art history art and gender studies sociology and contemporary art Encyclopedia of American Folk Art Gerard C. Wertkin, 2004-08-02 For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of American Folk Art web site This is the first comprehensive scholarly study of a most fascinating aspect of American history and culture Generously illustrated with both black and white and full color photos this A Z encyclopedia covers every aspect of American folk art encompassing not only painting but also sculpture basketry ceramics quilts furniture toys beadwork and more including both famous and lesser known genres Containing more than 600 articles this unique reference considers individual artists schools artistic ethnic and religious traditions and heroes who have inspired folk art An incomparable resource for general readers students and specialists it will become essential for anyone researching American art culture and social history Self-Taught, Outsider and Folk Art Betty-Carol Sellen, 2016-02-10

Much has changed in the world of self taught art since the millennium Many of the recognized masters have died and new artists have emerged Many galleries have closed but few new ones have opened as artists and dealers increasingly sell through websites and social media The growth and popularity of auction houses have altered the relationship between artists and collectors In its third edition this book provides updated information on artists galleries museums auctions organizations and publications for both experienced and aspiring collectors of self taught outsider and folk art Gallery and museum entries are organized geographically and alphabetically by state and city

Darger's Resources Michael Moon,2012-03-12 Moon turns his attention to the artist Henry Darger an eccentric and self taught artist whose work was only discovered after his death Since then the work has become famous but Darger himself has generally been seen as a withdrawn outsider artist whose work may have been the result of mental illness Moon provides a contrasting view of a creative and gifted artist very responsive to the world around him

We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger,2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self taught artists and how they changed American art Artists without formal training who learned from family community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self definition permanently changed the mainstream art world In We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide ranging societal racial and gender based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers Lavishly illustrated throughout We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty three artists including James Castle Thornton Dial William Edmondson Howard Finster Bessie Harvey Dan Miller Sister Gertrude Morgan the Philadelphia Wireman Nellie Mae Rowe Judith Scott and Bill Traylor The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self definition cultural heritage struggle and joy and inequity and achievement At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self taught artists the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race gender class and ability Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum

Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC July 1 2022 March 26 2023

Curious Toys Elizabeth Hand,2019-10-15 An intrepid young woman stalks a murderer through turn of the century Chicago in this rich spooky and atmospheric thriller that will appeal to fans of Henry Darger and Erik Larson alike Sarah McCarry In the sweltering summer of 1915 Pin the fourteen year old daughter of a carnival fortune teller dresses as a boy and joins a teenage gang that roams the famous Riverview amusement park looking for trouble Unbeknownst to the well heeled city dwellers and visitors who come to enjoy the midway the park is also host to a ruthless killer who uses the shadows of the dark carnival attractions to conduct his crimes When Pin sees a man enter the Hell Gate ride with a young girl and emerge alone she knows that something horrific has occurred The crime will lead her to the iconic outsider artist Henry Darger a brilliant but seemingly mad man Together the two navigate the seedy underbelly of a changing city to uncover a murderer few even know to look for

To Make the Hands Impure Adam Zachary Newton, 2016-01-01 How can cradling handling or rubbing a text be said ethically to have made something happen What as readers or interpreters may come off in our hands in as we maculate or mark the books we read For Adam Zachary Newton reading is an embodied practice wherein ethics becomes a matter of tact in the doubled sense of touch and regard With the image of the book lying in the hands of its readers as insistent refrain To Make the Hands Impure cuts a provocative cross disciplinary swath through classical Jewish texts modern Jewish philosophy film and performance literature translation and the material text Newton explores the ethics of reading through a range of texts from the Talmud and Midrash to Conrad's Nostromo and Pascal's Le Mémorial from works by Henry Darger and Martin Scorsese to the National September 11 Memorial and a synagogue in Havana Cuba In separate chapters he conducts masterly treatments of Emmanuel Levinas Mikhail Bakhtin and Stanley Cavell by emphasizing their performances as readers a trebled orientation to Talmud novel and theater film To Make the Hands Impure stages the encounter of literary experience and scriptural traditions the difficult and the holy through an ambitious singular and innovative approach marked in equal measure by erudition and imaginative daring
