Dark Space Architecture Representation Identity:

Dark Space Mario Gooden, 2016 This collection of essays by architect Mario Gooden investigates the construction of African American identity and representation through the medium of architecture These five texts move between history theory and criticism to explore a discourse of critical spatial practice engaged in the constant reshaping of the African Diaspora African American cultural institutions designed and constructed in recent years often rely on cultural stereotypes metaphors and clichés to communicate significance demonstrating Africanisms through form and symbolism but there is a far richer and more complex heritage to be explored Presented here is a series of questions that interrogate and illuminate other narratives of African American architecture and reveal compelling ways of translating the philosophical idea of the African Diaspora's experience into space Routledge Critical Companion to Race and Architecture Felipe Hernández, Itohan Osayimwese, 2025-10-31 This book explores the malleability of race as a construct one subject to continuous redefinitions in different times cultures and places While race has been deployed historically to establish hierarchies in a modern colonial world it also has acquired the capacity to challenge those hierarchies enabling critical engagements with epistemic positions that have been excluded from univocal Eurocentric architectural narratives The volume expands the discourse on racializing concepts and categories beyond the traditional Africa North America axis examining many issues that have been overlooked in the field of architecture This broader range of topics provides for a more comprehensive understanding of how race is constructed and represented in architectural theory and practice globally Written by an international and influential cast of contributors the structure of the book permits a detailed revision of the most current theoretical debates on race Each part deals with a specific challenge at a particular scale Ultimately the book embraces discussions about theory urban and regional debates architectural design at the scale of the building history and education exploring the concept of race in all aspects of the discipline It is essential reading for anyone studying or working in the built environment Portals Amy Catania Kulper, Kevin Crouse, Jennifer Liese, 2021-11-11 Portals Pedagogy Practice and Architecture's Future Imaginary considers the COVID 19 pandemic and the remote pedagogy it occasioned globally in schools of architecture as a critical threshold to future architectural pedagogy practice and spatial imaginaries Given that the conceit of a return to normal is neither desirable nor possible this book speculates upon possible futures for the discipline of architecture through the lens of the Thesis and Directed Research projects of the RISD Architecture class of 2020 This book documents an interregnum a pause a moment of self reflection in which architects imperiled by the COVID 19 pandemic and all of the forms of inequity that this global crisis surfaced confronted remote architectural pedagogy and practice as a critical threshold for the future imaginary of the discipline The renowned group of architects educators theorists critics and curators assembled in this volume provide critical insights into the future of architectural pedagogy utilizing the thesis and design research projects of the RISD Architecture class of 2020 as exemplars of the transformations currently taking place in the field This volume considers the forms that architectural activism and advocacy take in a moment when architects are critically reexamining the conventions of their practice and the question of which constituencies they serve With Contributions by RISD B Arch M Arch students with I aki Alday Daniel A Barber Hansy Better Barraza Sean Canty Kevin Crouse Peggy Deamer David Gersten Mario Gooden Timothy Hyde Daniel Iba ez Kent Kleinman Amy Catania Kulper Carl Lostritto Ryan McCaffrey Ana Milja ki Kiel Moe Nicholas de Monchaux Ijlal Muzaffar Ben Pell Rachely Rotem Jacqueline Shaw Lola Sheppard Georgeen Theodore Mason White Dr Mabel O Wilson Jason Young

Hip-Hop Architecture Sekou Cooke, 2021-03-25 This book is not for you It is not for architectural academic elites It is not for those who have gentrified our neighborhoods overly intellectualized the profession and ignored all contemporary Black theory within the discipline You have made architecture a symbol of exclusion oppression and domination rather than expression aspiration and inspiration This book is not for conformists Black White or other As architecture grapples with its own racist legacy Hip Hop Architecture outlines a powerful new manifesto the voice of the underrepresented marginalized and voiceless within the discipline Exploring the production of spaces buildings and urban environments that embody the creative energies in hip hop it is a newly expanding design philosophy which sees architecture as a distinct part of hip hop s cultural expression and which uses hip hop as a lens through which to provoke new architectural ideas Examining the present and the future of Hip Hop Architecture the book also explores its historical antecedents and its theory placing it in a wider context both within architecture and within Black and African American movements Throughout the work is illustrated with inspirational case studies of architectural projects and creative practices and interspersed with interludes and interviews with key architects designers and academics in the field This is a vital and provocative work that will appeal to architects designers students theorists and anyone interested in a fresh view of architecture design race and culture Includes Foreword by Michael Eric Dyson

Museum Metamorphosis nico wheadon, 2022-02-28 In Museum Metamorphosis over forty cultural innovators and changemakers in contemporary art share strategies for building sociocultural relevancy and responsiveness in museums Representing diverse perspectives from across the entire arts and culture ecosystem the book offers tools to reshape museums into collaborative platforms for collective impact and social change Part One features seven roundtables in which practitioners discuss best practices for dismantling barriers to entry and building reciprocal sustained engagement with diverse constituencies Part Two documents four case studies in structured collaboration prompting museums to invest in both hyperlocal relationships and cross sector partnerships And Part Three features four interviews with thought leaders who discuss how to shift equity from a measure of compliance to a vital daily practice of organizational accountability and sustainability Compiled during a moment of heightened social action cultural transformation and institutional critique Museum Metamorphosis considers and responds to the following prompts how will museums learn to embrace real time change and adapt to meet the evolving needs of a rapidly shifting sociopolitical landscape How can this metamorphosis open new pathways for engagement and encourage museums to meet more audiences where they are And how might reconstituting the essential DNA of the museum recalibrate the power dynamics between communities and institutions producing a sustainable model for engaged cultural citizenship In addressing these questions Museum Metamorphosis looks to innovation transpiring beyond the museum echo chamber and lays bare both the opportunities and challenges of adopting new ways of working It dares readers to identify their respective position within the social change ecosystem and empowers them with tools to reorient their work towards cultural equity and social justice

Race and Modern Architecture Irene Cheng, Charles L. Davis II, Mabel O. Wilson, 2020-05-26 Although race a concept of human difference that establishes hierarchies of power and domination has played a critical role in the development of modern architectural discourse and practice since the Enlightenment its influence on the discipline remains largely underexplored This volume offers a welcome and long awaited intervention for the field by shining a spotlight on constructions of race and their impact on architecture and theory in Europe and North America and across various global contexts since the eighteenth century Challenging us to write race back into architectural history contributors confront how racial thinking has intimately shaped some of the key concepts of modern architecture and culture over time including freedom revolution character national and indigenous style progress hybridity climate representation and radicalism By analyzing how architecture has intersected with histories of slavery colonialism and inequality from eighteenth century neoclassical governmental buildings to present day housing projects for immigrants Race and Modern Architecture challenges complicates and revises the standard association of modern architecture with a universal project of emancipation and progress

Modern American Poetry and the Architectural Imagination Jo Gill, 2023 Modern American Poetry and the Architectural Imagination The Harmony of Forms assesses the relationship between architectural and poetic innovation in the United States across the twentieth century Taking the work of five key poets as case studies and drawing on the work of a rich range of other writers architects artists and commentators this study proposes that by examining the sustained and productive if hitherto overlooked engagement between the two disciplines we enrich our understanding of the complexity and interrelationship of both The book begins by tracing the rise of what was conceived of as modern and often international style architecture and by showing how poetry and architecture in the early decades of the century developed in dialogue and within a shared and often transnational context It then moves on to examine the material aesthetic and social conditions that helped shape both disciplines offering new readings of familiar poems and bringing other pertinent resources to light It considers the uses to which poets of the period put the insights of architecture and vice versa In closing Gill turns to modern and contemporary architects written accounts of their own practice in memoirs and other commentaries and examines how they have assimilated or resisted the practice and vision of poetry

Critical Strategies for Ecological Architectures Mathias Rollot, 2025-11-01 This book addresses the alarming state of the planet and considers a potential new role for architecture in the Anthropocene It explores ways in which architecture could contribute to solutions as well as how the discipline should prepare for the future Drawing on other disciplines such as bioregionalism animalism and decolonial thinking it demonstrates how architecture can extend its relevance The book introduces new theoretical approaches that encourage completely different ways of thinking showing and designing It introduces concepts such as human energy decolonial bioregionalism and emancipatory architecture which serve to challenge anthropocentric theories and promote more sustainable architectural practices This book makes an ethical appeal to architects and non architects alike proposing new strategies for thinking teaching and creating a wholly different kind of architecture for a rapidly changing world In doing so it addresses the challenges facing contemporary societies and ecological changes demonstrating how the ecological humanities can transform architecture as a field and radically alter its history references values and aims The book aims to contribute to a metamorphosis of architecture towards greater ecological and emancipatory capacity and towards pluriversal bioregions

The Architecture of Disability David Gissen, 2023-01-24 A radical critique of architecture that places disability at the heart of the built environment Disability critiques of architecture usually emphasize the need for modification and increased access but The Architecture of Disability calls for a radical reorientation of this perspective by situating experiences of impairment as a new foundation for the built environment With its provocative proposal for the construction of disability this book fundamentally reconsiders how we conceive of and experience disability in our world Stressing the connection between architectural form and the capacities of the human body David Gissen demonstrates how disability haunts the history and practice of architecture Examining various historic sites landscape designs and urban spaces he deconstructs the prevailing functionalist approach to accommodating disabled people in architecture and instead asserts that physical capacity is essential to the conception of all designed space By recontextualizing the history of architecture through the discourse of disability The Architecture of Disability presents a unique challenge to current modes of architectural practice theory and education Envisioning an architectural design that fully integrates disabled persons into its production it advocates for looking beyond traditional notions of accessibility and shows how certain incapacities can offer us the means to positively reimagine the roots of architecture

Decoloniality in the Break of Global Blackness Michaeline A. Crichlow, Patricia M. Northover, 2025-05-21 This book contextualized by the violence of globalization investigates the fungible fugitive and untenable experiences of Black being and time through a decolonial poethics of global Blackness In so doing it introduces innovative readings of coloniality decoloniality by threading its meaning and movement through the problem of Blackness It argues that global Blackness is the complexly entangled other side of decoloniality as movement method and poethics for radical new worlds The essays explore this through inter transdisciplinary creative and decolonial standpoints whether from prison abolitionist demands to Afrofuturist imaginaries or by seeing through Black mirrors It emphasizes the paradoxical characteristics of global Blackness its spectral quality of being in and out of modernity's self narrative to provide a way of dwelling with global Blackness as a force that is neither properly constituted by corporeality nor thinkable in ontological terms determined by modern power The book will be of interest to academics researchers and students in the fields of social sciences cultural studies postcolonial studies as well as cultural practitioners art educators artists cultural activists and those institutions that seek to decolonize imaginaries thought practices and methods Given its diverse offerings it will also be of interest to upper level undergraduates graduate students and academics
