DEFA at the Crossroads of East German and International Film Culture Marc Silberman, Henning Wrage, 2014-05-21 Motion picture production distribution exhibition and reception has always been a transnational phenomenon yet East Germany situated at the edge of the post war Iron Curtain separated by a boundary that became materialized in the Berlin Wall in 1961 resembles nothing if not an island a protected space where film production developed under the protection of government subsidy and ideological purity This volume proposes on the contrary that the GDR cinema was never just a monologue Rather its media landscape was characterized by constant dialogue if not competition with both the capitalist West and socialist East These thirteen essays reshape DEFA cinema studies by exploring international networks identifying lines of influence beyond national boundaries and recognizing genre qualities that surpass the temporal and spatial confines The international team of film specialists present detailed analyses of over fifty films including fiction features adaptations of literary classics children's films documentaries and examples from genres such as music sci fi Westerns and crime films With contributions by Sean Allan Hunter Bivens Benita Blessing Barton Byg Jaimey Fisher Sabine Hake Nick Hodgkin Manuel Kopp Anke Pinkert Larson Powell Brad Prager Marc Silberman Stefan Soldovieri and Henning Wrage

Screening Nostalgia Alexandra Ludewig, 2014-03-15 The Heimat film genre assumed to be outdated by so many is very much alive Who would have thought that this genre which has been almost unanimously denounced within academic circles but which seems to resonate so deeply with the general public would experience a renaissance in the 21st century The genre's recent resurgence is perhaps due less to an obsession with generic storylines and stereotyped figures than to a basic human need for grounding that has resulted in a passionate debate about issues of past and present This book traces the history of the Heimat film genre from the early mountain films to Fatih Akin's contemporary interpretations of Heimat Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture John Sandford, 2013-04-03 With more than 1 100 entries written by an international group of over 150 contributors the Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture brings together myriad strands of social political and cultural life in the post 1945 German speaking world With a unique structure and format an inclusive treatment of the concept of culture and coverage of East West and post unification Germany as well as Austria and Switzerland the Encyclopedia of Contemporary German Culture is the first reference work of its kind Containing longer overviews of up to 2 000 words as well as shorter factual entries cross referencing to other relevant articles useful further reading suggestions and extensive indexing this highly useable volume provides the scholar teacher student or non specialist with an astonishing breadth and depth of information Hollywood Behind the Wall Daniela Berghahn, 2005-07-15 This book is a representative history of East German film culture from 1946 to the present examining both DEFA s celebrated classics and the most acclaimed post unification feature films by East German directors As Berghahn shows East German cinema occupies an ambivalent position between German national cinema on the one hand and East European and Soviet cinema on the other It includes a wide ranging exploration of post unification cinema from East Germany including cult films such as Sun Alley and Goodbye Lenin and provides contextualized readings of twenty significant films referencing one hundred and ninety East German films in total along with numerous West German and East European classics Divided, But Not Disconnected Tobias Hochscherf, Christoph Laucht, Andrew Plowman, 2010-12-01 The Allied agreement after the Second World War did not only partition Germany it divided the nation along the fault lines of a new bipolar world order This inner border made Germany a unique place to experience the Cold War and the German question in this post 1945 variant remained inextricably entwined with the vicissitudes of the Cold War until its end This volume explores how social and cultural practices in both German states between 1949 and 1989 were shaped by the existence of this inner border putting them on opposing sides of the ideological divide between the Western and Eastern blocs as well as stabilizing relations between them This volume s interdisciplinary approach addresses important intersections between history politics and culture offering an important new appraisal of the German experiences of the Cold War
