Who Decides Who Decides? John Spiers, Philip Booth, Neil Russel, 2016-07-12. This book makes the case for ordinary people to get the health and social care which the state has promised them for over 60 years but which has not been delivered. What is the case for choice? How can choice be made real for the individual? What impact can genuine, individually financially empowered choice have on effective funding, purchasing, delivery, and outcomes? How can a genuine market grow and thrive? How can the quest for choice include the large numbers of NHS and social care staff on whom success depends? The book urges individual financial empowerment through a life long health savings account for all NHS and social services.
